Marine Air Men Go On Maneuvers On September 18

On the morning of September 8, Marine Air Reserve officers and enlisted men, members of Marine Fighting Squadrons 123 and 241 and Marine Ground Control Intercept Squadron 18, stationed at the Naval Air Station, Los Alamitos, will depart for El Toro Marine Corps Air Station for a two-weeks maneuver.

The officers and men from Los Alamitos will join other Marine Air Reserve contingents from cities in the Western United States.

GRAVITY SPEEDS DESCENT

Drivers who would rather be safe, use the engine as a brake when descending a steep grade. They realize that the best braking system ever developed is subjected to a strain which may be positively dangerous on some hills.

Can Pick Army Job And Location

Authority to accept men in the Army on a "Pick your job and location" basis has been received by Col. Leslie W. Jefferson, Army recruiting head for Southern California. The Colonel stated that a "lion's share of these top job assignments will go to the famed Second Infantry Division now stationed at Fort Lewis, Washington. This is another step forward in the Army's liberalized assignment policy."

It was pointed out by M/Sgt. James R. Callison, Torrance Army recruiter, that qualified applicants may also be assigned to other stateside units within this area.

Interested former servicemen of any branch of the armed forces may obtain additional information by applying at the U. S. Army Recruiting office located in the Chamber of Commerce bldg., Torrance.

Sam Levy Will Supervise Police Building Addition

Construction of an addition to the Police department building will start this week, according to Sam Levy, supervisor of the work.

Appointed by the City Council at a salary of $1 a month Levy previously served as technical advisor for the renovation of the Fire department building.

The addition, which will cost approximately $500, will consist of a new office utilizing the space between the Police department and the City Hall.

COMMON COURTESY

Common courtesy as well as the law, demands the lowering of headlight beams when approaching oncoming cars at night.

Aid To Vets On Finance Deals Offered Here

Veterans who have lost their terminal leave bonds or who have discovered errors in the computation of the amount of leave pay to which they were entitled were offered assistance today by J. G. Caldwell, director of the Torrance Veterans Service Center.

Caldwell suggested that veterans take steps to obtain replacement of lost bonds or correction of errors even though they do not desire to turn in their certificates for cash after September 1, effective date of a new federal law permitting redemption of the bonds.

Those who have lost bonds previously issued to them should write to the Chief of the Division of Loans and Currency, U. S. Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., giving full explanation of the circumstances of the loss and as complete description as possible of the bonds to be replaced. This should include the name and address of the claimant, serial number, value, date and by whom issued. The claimant will then be sent official application forms for the replacement of the lost bonds.

A veteran who has received less terminal leave pay than he was entitled to receive should write to the finance officer who paid him originally and ask him to recompute the amount due.

Ice Follies Of 1948 To Open On Sept. 18

The World Premiere of the Shipstads and Johnson "Ice Follies of 1948," the 12th annual edition of this original and most distinguished musical ice extravaganza, is scheduled for Thursday, September 18, at the Pan-Pacific auditorium.

The spectacular show is scheduled for its shortest Los Angeles engagement in history.

Reports from "sneak previews" have it that the all-new edition establishes greatest heights ever in America's favorite entertainment.

The host of perennial favorite stars—Roy Shipstad, Evelyn Chandler, Frick and Frack, Hazel Franklin, Harris Legg, Betty Schalow, Shirley Halsted, Ginger Clayton, Dick Rasmussen, Mae Ross, Bill Cameron, Ole Erickson, Les Hamilton, Russ Tuckey and Jim Hutchinson—have been joined by new "discoveries."

Included in the new "Ice Follies" talent are the Scotvold Twins, Joanne and Joyce, winsome young blonde skating darlings, and the Schramm Twins, Roy and Ray, who skate chained together. These two sets of twins, who add a fresh new touch to the musical ice revue, are from Minnesota.

Two new solo artists are charming Monica Moran and petite Marilyn Sahlin. Since joining "Ice Follies" midway thru the 1947 season, Genevieve Norris and Ted Roman, have been winning the plaudits of skating fans with their variations of adagio and acrobatic skating.

Glee Patton, another charming new discovery, joins Shirley Halsted and Ginger Clayton to form the "Clare de Lune Trio." Jim Hutchinson and Ole Ericson, comedy favorites, are augmented by the new talents of Carlos Romero, Jr. and beautiful Virginia Morrison joins with veteran comedian Les Hamilton for a new comedy slant.

After an absence of a year Phyllis Legg is back with Harris Legg to perform a still-skating twosome.

Tickets for all performances, including the gala World Premiere, are available now at all agencies.

ICE FOLLIES STARS: "It's Genevieve Norris and Ted Roman, sensational new stars of the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1948, which will have its world premiere at the Los Angeles Pan-Pacific September 18. Norris and Roman are hailed as the most spectacular adagio team ever seen on the ice."

To the thousands of friends accumulated over a period of fifteen years we wish to express, through your local newspaper, our deep appreciation for your patronage, confidence and consideration, during the war, when old trucks, care and patience were at the breaking point.

Your loyalty leads us to believe that the growth of our business can be measured by your satisfaction and our honest effort to give you "DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR" in merchandise and service.

We promised you better vehicles in the U-drive line and the picture above represents a portion of the modern fleet now ready for you. It includes: dumps, flats, stakes, semis, cargos, pickups, power wreckers, low bed trailers and various other vehicles for any purpose.

To the Churches, fraternal organizations and Boy Scouts who for years have used our old trucks for their group movements on picnics and other occasions, we invite you to try one of our modern 30-passenger buses on your next party.

Drop in for a visit, inspect our place and discuss your transportation problems. Among the 90 trucks we now have, you will find the one to serve your purpose which you may rent or purchase on convenient terms with personal financing. Ask the man who bought one.
