YOUNG STUDENTS GIVE MUSICAL PROGRAM SUNDAY

Kathryn Buffington, pianist and teacher, 1434 Post avenue, presented a group of her young students in a program Saturday afternoon in honor of their mothers and guests.

After a kindergarten program of rhymes and learning of seven letters, as well as playing the piano, a group of du-pianists and solo numbers was presented.

Nadine Nickel, mezzo-soprano, sang two songs, "When Children Pray," by Fenner, and "Lindy Lou," by Strickland. Ann Olsen, after an original pianologue, presented two of her dancing pupils: Karen Hakanson and Marva Jones, who gave a Dutch dance.

Duo-pianists were Gary Hakanson and Lenore Sexton, Ann Olson and Micky Van Deventer, Elissa Mata and Beverly Luster, Patricia Blackman and Geraldine Faren. Solo selections were given by Geraldine Faren and Bob Turner, while Beverly Luster and Eldridge Walker played "Polonaise," by Chopin and "Malgucena," by Lecuona, in honor of George Zavislan, a special guest at the recital.

The kindergarten group included Patricia Kiedlighter, Dickie Coburn, Alan Rosenberg, Dickie Darrow and Bobbie Bauman.

Farewell For Club Member

The J. F. F. Club of Walteria was entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Loughridge Tuesday evening for a farewell party honoring Mrs. Roy Palmer, who is leaving soon for an extended visit in Colorado.

During the evening Mrs. Palmer was presented with a number of gifts accompanied by the good wishes of the club members for a pleasant journey and safe return to Walteria.

Parts were assigned for an amateur play to be presented by the club soon after the holidays and it was announced that the club members are now working on picture books for the Children's Hospital.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mattie Hayes and Edith Buckingham.
