Tartars Ahead Except in Passes

Torrance's Varsity out-did their gridiron opponents this season in every aspect of the game—except yardage clipped off via passes, a statistical report complied by George Whiting, high school senior, revealed yesterday.

The Tartar opponents were out-downed, out-ran, and completed less passes than the local club—but those passes completed by opponents were deciding factors in a number of games and therefore in the Tartars final league standing.

If Tartar opponents would have had the same difficulty gaining yardage through the air as they did on the ground
the local club would have had a highly successful season—
probably second place in the
Bay League. probably second | Bay League | TEAM STATISTICS—LEAGUE PLAY (Compiled by Gebrge Whiting)

The Dees tripped the Mohi cans 15.7, with Center Bruce Smith awhose brother plays the same position on the Varsity scoring six points for high mar

December 7th Is 'G-Day' to Four Tartar Squads

For the Tartar Basketball teams, December 7 was "6 Day"

Gaucho Day.

Last Tuesday no less than four Narbonne High School basketball teams invaded Totrance with a bus load of sharpshooters and picked off all four of Torrance's teams, one by one.

Engaging in their first battle of the Casaba season, the Tartar Varsity dropped their opener to the Gauchos, 43-28. The Bees fell only three points behind to lose 30-27. The Cees dropped their battle, 29-21, while the Dees dropped to their mees before a 21-13 onslaught by the Gaucho Midgets.

In the Varsity battle Torrance held the advantage for the first five minutes after drawing the first blood. At half time the Gauchos, after a sustained drive, led 15-13. Coach Cliff Graybehl'attributes the Tartar loss to a number of things — mainly missing shots. Mentor Graybehl in reviewing the battle called attention to the fact that the Tartars missed 12 shots. Bob LeBlanc mlssed six free throws. Dead-eye for the Tartar tars was Captain Paul Smith at center, who rang the belt for 10 points.

Although the series of four contests were the first for Torrontests were th at center, who rang the bell for 10 points.

Although the series of four contests were the first for Torrance, Narbonne's timber toppers were chalking up their 11th contest of the season.

"With a little eye practice out boys can develop into a pretty good ball club this scason," Coach Graybell said.

Coach Eddle Cole's Ree squad "looked like a real ball club the first half," according to Cole. They led the Uaucho Bees 18-16 but dropped the ball game in the second half as they suffered the same illness of their big brothers on the varsity—eye trouble. They made five out of 23 free throws.

Athis week by the County Board of Supervisors.

Sims and Hollingsworth, owners of the Meadowfark Golf Course near Runtington Beach, will develop the 183-acre site into a regulation 18-hole ceurse with a nine-hole pitch and putt course. Cost of the project is estimated to be S220,000. Construction of the Clubhouse and greens is expected to be completed within the next 15-months, according to Raymond V. Darby, chairman of the board.

Darby revealed that under the terms of the contract a, recreational area is this section of the county will be developed practically at no cost to the public. The agreement calls for a 10-year lease with a 10-year option and monthly payments in lieu of taxes. The operators will construct and maintain both the course and the clubhouse. All, eventually, will revert to the county at the end of the 20-year period, Darby said.

now on leave of absence from UCLA as physical education director, have signed a contract with the county to construct a golf course and clubnouse at Alondra Park, it was announced to the course probably would be delayed until af-
