Seaside Ranchos

MRS. HELEN CARLTON

Election of officers for next year will be the main business before the Seaside Ranchos Home Owners Association at the regular monthly meeting at 8 o'clock tonight at the Hollywood Riviera Beach Club. The nominating committee members, representing each street, have selected two nominees for each office, however, nominations from the floor will be accepted tonight. Members of the committee were James Hall, of Sharyne Lane; William Morris, Reese road; Mrs. John Kirby, Robert road; Edward Faye, Linda drive; Quentin Johnson, Carol drive; Paul Murray, upper Doris way and Sam Dale, lower Doris way.

Here's an important reminder to all mothers who plan to take their children to the special Christmas party Saturday afternoon at the Riviera Beach Club, sponsored by Las Vecinas Club. A Christmas gift, costing not to exceed 80 cents, should be wrapped and marked with the age and sex of each child who will attend, and turned into the block depot head by tomorrow (Friday) afternoon. All children in Hollywood Riviera and Seaside Ranchos have been invited; the younger group meeting from 2 to 4 o'clock. Teenagers are invited to attend the children's party, but they will also have a juke-box dance from 4 to 5 o'clock and are requested to bring their gift for the grab bag then. Mothers making decorated Christmas cookies should have them to the depot heads by Friday afternoon also.

Many and varied parties preceded the successful Christmas dance last Saturday evening when Seaside residents turned out in support of their first social evening affair of their new club. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jeffrey were hosts at a cocktail party at their home on Doris way to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger, Seaside Ranchos, Mr. and Mrs. John Johling and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McCune of Long Beach. Guests of the Ev Rowans and William Schmitz, who held a party at the Schmitz home on Carol drive, were Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Al Conover, Mrs. Jack Pomeroy of Seaside Ranchos, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Lein of Palos Verdes and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chilton of Los Angeles.

Holding pre-dance dinners were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman who had Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hughes of San Marino and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hines of Long Beach as their guests; Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Hurst, who entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shelley of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greenwood who joined Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raggsdale of Long Beach in a dinner party. Also at the dance were the O. Suters and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Sayre of Palos Verdes; the Edward Fayses, John Kirbys, Frank Hanovers, Paul Barths, Quentin Johnsons, George Honzik, Edmond Spies, Derby Rosenbergs, Austin Shotts and Byron Burtons.

Now at her Doris way home with her husband and older son Tommy is Mrs. L. H. Sidebotham and new baby boy, Leo Roy, born at Torrance Memorial Hospital Dec. 4. Young Leo Roy weighed 7 pounds 1 ounce at birth.

Miss Kathy Susan Hopkin, weighing 6 pounds even, was born at the Santa Monica Hospital Dec. 7. She is the second child of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Hopkin, Doris way, who have another daughter, Penny Diane, three years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Boggs of Carol drive became the parents of an 8 pound 11 1/2 ounces baby boy Dec. 8 at Suburban Hospital in South Gate. The new boy, named Thomas Wendell, has two brothers, Stephan and Douglas, and a sister, Christine, who are staying with their grandmother, Mrs. J. H. O'Neal of Inglewood for a couple of weeks.

Honoring her daughter Carolyn on her sixth birthday, Mrs. Paul Roettger held a supper at her Doris way home Saturday evening, assisted by her sister, Mrs. William Masters of Inglewood. Twelve little girl friends of the honoree vied for prizes in games. Winners were Miss Kathy Saunders of Walteria and Miss Carol Lynn Carlson, Seaside. Guests at the birthday supper were the Misses Wanda Wands, Carla Cramen, Nancy Powell and Kathy Saunders of Walteria, Linae Fetters and Marlene Fetters, Elaine Malan, Carolyn Greenwood, Janet Lawrence, Carol Lynn Carlson, Dorothy Ann Locke, Barbara Merola, Joanne Hanlon and Carolyn's brother Timmy, all of Seaside Ranchos.

Mesdames Marie Larkins, Margaret Roettger, Dorothy Johnson and Margaret Jeffrey of Seaside Ranchos attended the Christmas meeting and potluck luncheon of Torrance Council P.T.A. Wednesday morning in the Torrance home of Mrs. W. E. Bowen, council president.

Mrs. Frank Hanover was hostess at a surprise baby shower honoring Mrs. William Keller Wednesday eve at her Sharyne lane home. A pink and blue decorated umbrella holding the shower gifts was presented to Mrs. Keller after an evening of bunco. Refreshments of sandwiches and cake were served to the guests. Mesdames Paul Roettger, Harvey Spelman, Don Hall, E. O. Hurst, Myron Page, Robert Harris, James Hall, Harold Teach, Eugene Miller, Al Conover, George Batchelor of Seaside and Mrs. O. C. Dougherty, mother of the honoree, of Carlisle, Pa.

Little Miss Erin London celebrated her second birthday Sunday with a family buffet supper and two birthday cakes. Members of the family attending included Mr. D. B. London, grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Rale London, uncle and aunt, and cousin Sharon London, Mr. and Mrs. Schumann Cherry, uncle and aunt, all of Redondo Beach; Mrs. Nan Dixon, grandmother, Susan Jane, sister, and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. London, parents and Mrs. Frank Ryan and Julie Ann, neighbors, all of Seaside Ranchos.

Seventeen Seaside boys, members of the Torrance Gra-Y boys, attended the Long Beach Y. M. C. A. party Saturday afternoon of swimming and movies. The Seaside boys, ranging from 8 to 13, met every Thursday afternoon from 4.30 to 6 o'clock in the park under the leadership of Mr. Robert Lee, youth chairman, or Milton Isbell, director of the Torrance Y.M.C.A.

Pony rides for all the little guests was the outstanding feature of young Michael's fourth birthday party Thursday afternoon. Michael, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Keyes of Robert road, celebrated his birthday with little playmates Julie Ryan, Chris and Mary Rounds, Johnnie Voishan, Andrew Neal, Danny Murphy, Jay Kirby, Gary Spies, Chuckie Robinson and younger brother Stephan as his guests.

Another birthday was noted in the tract this week when young Michael Cole, three-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Cole, was honored with a party Tuesday afternoon at his Doris way home. Little guests enjoyed an afternoon of parlor games and traditional refreshments of ice cream and cake, served by his mother, Mrs. Cole, and grandmother Mrs. Rose Heath, who came from San Diego to help her grandson celebrate his birthday. Children invited were Scotty Keas of Redondo, Johnny Ure of Hollywood Riviera, his brother Steven and Seaside playmates Benny Hopkin, Rocky Jenkins, David Rosenbergs, Elaine and Billy Malan, Robert, Mary and Janet Lawrence, Leslie Pomeroy, Karen Faye, Erica Bessmer, Gail Rowan, Jayne and Johnny Carlton, Chuckie Robinson, Jeffrey Cotton, Steven and Douglas Stohman, Ronnie and Bonnie Johnson.

Daniel Bessmer has returned from a week's attendance at the Navy Regional Safety Conference at Mare Island. Bessmer is an industrial hygienist at the Long Beach Navy Yard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmitz were among those who experienced the earthquakes at Palm Springs recently. They had flown down for a weekend at the desert resort town.

Mrs. Earl Sacks was hostess at a luncheon at the Irons Cottage in Redondo Wednesday afternoon honoring her mother, Mrs. A. R. Ware of Pasadena. Guests were eight Pasadena friends of Mrs. Ware.

Mrs. Manye B. Rowan of Seattle, Washington, is spending the winter in Redondo Beach and has been visiting her son and family, the Ev Rowans of Carol drive.

CHRISTMAS PLAY AT WAYSIDE CHAPEL DEC. 22

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 22, a play entitled "Christmas Comes From Everywhere" will be portrayed at Wayside Chapel and is the only program of the Sunday school for the Christmas season. All parents and friends of the Sunday school are invited.
