

Plans for a big all-school carnival to be staged in the main building of Torrance High School Saturday night, Jan. 15, were announced this week by the Senior class, sponsors of the event.

Contract for painting and sealing the exterior of four city-owned buildings has been awarded by the Torrance City Council and work will start immediately.

Senator Loses Shoes

Grounder Rolls to Fence

Though Clair Johnson was credited with banging out a four-run homer during last Sunday's Torrance Police-Los Angeles Senators game at the city park which the Police won 7-4, no little credit should go to the Senators' centerfielder.

Johnson knocked out a grounder in the fourth that went clear to the fence as Hollquist of the Senators lost both shoes in his race for the speedy horsehide.

The victory marked the sixth in seven starts for the local nine.

Again it was Fireman Tom Ackers and his little bucket of spit balls who relieved Harry Theodosis in the eighth to put out a possible senatorial conflagration. Ackers went in with the bases loaded and allowed one hit and one run—making the total four runs for the Senators in the next to last frame.

Next Sunday the local club will play a double header with the trumpets sounding at 1 p.m. for the first start. A league contest will follow.
