Seaside Ranchos
MRS. HELEN CARLTON — Frontier 6185

The special meeting of the Seaside Rancho Home Owners Association, which was scheduled for this evening, has been postponed to next Thursday evening, Jan. 13, at the Riviera Beach Club. The new officers, headed by Harvey Spelman and Ev Rowan, will preside for the first time at this meeting, which will concern taxes.

Officials from the county assessor's office and from the City of Torrance have been invited to discuss property tax trends for the coming year, and in addition a summary of latest changes in income tax regulations will be given. Income tax forms will be passed out and instruction in proper preparation of income tax returns will be provided. New regulations offer tax saving advantages and Seaside Ranchos residents will be able, through this service, to file their returns promptly and without assistance.

Two brand new Seaside residents are now at their Ranchos homes following their births in Long Beach and Torrance this past week. Little Margaret Lois Stanley weighed 8 pounds 1/2 ounce when she was born at the Long Beach Community Hospital Dec. 23. She is the first daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Stanley of Carol drive, who have another child, John, who is 3. Born Dec. 28 at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, little Judith Anne Keller is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keller of Sharynne lane. Judith Anne, who weighed 5 pounds 12 ounces at birth, is now home with her older sister, Sally, 3 and her grandmother Mrs. O. C. Dougherty of Carlisle, Pa., who will be here for a few weeks. Mr. Dougherty flew back to Pennsylvania yesterday after welcoming his newest granddaughter home.

Nomination cards have now been sent to all Seaside and Hollywood Riviera women for their suggestions of officers of Las Vecinas from the new year. These suggestions should be returned to the nomination committee headed by Mrs. Paul Fritz of Hollywood Riviera, and the top two for each office will be put on the Las Vecinas ballot. Everyone may nominate officers this year but voting will be restricted to dues-paying members.

Several birthday parties in these past weeks helped Seaside Ranchos observe the holiday spirit. Just before Christmas, little Dana Fay celebrated his first birthday with a party at the Fay home on Linda drive. A circus birthday cake and ice cream were served from a gaily balloon-decorated table.

cream" clowns carried out the theme of the party while apple Santa Claus favors provided the Christmas spirit. Dana's cousins Pamela and Ginger Witney, Diane, Dale, Billy and Buddy Witney, sister Karen and little playmates Leslie Honzik, Christine Looman, Leslie Pomeroy, Jay Kirby and their mothers Mrs. Jess Witney, Mrs. Ernest Witney, Mrs. George Honzik, Mrs. Fey Looman, Mrs. Jack Pomeroy and Mrs. John Kirby helped him celebrate. Mrs. Edward Fay was assisted by Mrs. Ernest Witney and Mrs. John Kirby.

It was a real family birthday party at the Loren Edman home when 7-year-old John Edman and his grandmother Mrs. Frank Edman of Royal Oak, Mich., held a combined birthday party. Helping John and Mrs. Edman celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Loren Edman and other children Frank, Judy, Craig, Christopher and Larry. Birthday cake and ice cream were served from a gaily balloon-decorated table.

A New Year's eve party at the Ed Jeffrey home saw Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barth, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Keeshans, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson of Seaside Ranchos and Mr. and Mrs. John Jobling of Long Beach welcoming in the New Year, while Mr. and Mrs. Roy Metcalf were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Joel Edman and Jim Shidler of Seaside, Miss Lynne Jackson of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Benjamin of Los Angeles.

New Year's day saw the Paul Roettgers, Leonard Doyle, Robert Cottons and William Scanton watching the game over television at the Carl Larkins home on Doris way while the W. S. Shockencys joined her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Bradford of Redondo, in a trip to Phoenix, Ariz. to visit relatives.

Entertaining guests and relatives throughout the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan with his parents Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Quinlivan of Shell Beach, and Mrs. Quinlivan's sister Miss Ann Silvera of Fresno and her party of friends; Mr. and Mrs. William Carty who had Mrs. Carty's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Sutton and daughter Roberta of National C.; Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Carlton who entertained Mrs. Carlton's parents Mr. and Mrs. William E. Gillfillan of Visalia, and cousins Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Gillfillan of Los Angeles while Mr. and Mrs. William Haegle had Mrs. Haegle's sister and family, the Louis Lacey's of Needles as their guests.

Among the family reunions and family dinners held during the holidays was the dinner at the Harold Dale home with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanley of Inglewood, Bob Hanley of the U. S. Army and the H. G. Hanleys, S. G. Dales and Trevor, Harlow and Jeffrey Dale, all of Seaside Ranchos.

The W. S. Shockencys entertained friends and relatives with a dinner at their home on Doris way. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bradford, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Hammerslag, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dillard and son Jerry, all of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ollman and children Lois and Leonard of Indianapolis, Mrs. Nita Hauffbauer of Santa Monica and the Shockency children, Bruce and Brent.

Guests at the Cliff Scioneaux home over the holidays included Mrs. Scioneaux brothers, "Red" Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Don Cameron and two daughters from Iowa, her grandfather Daniel McCown, her mother Mrs. Mae Cameron and sisters Joyce and Joanne of Los Angeles.
