INITIATION DINNER, OTHER AFFAIRS TOLD BY JUNIORS

The January conference of Los Angeles District CFWC Junior Membership was held Monday evening in Pasadena.

An exceptionally interesting program was presented featuring Dr. Merle Tabor, who spoke on the Psychology of Marriage. Representing Torrance Junior Woman's Club at the conference were:

Mrs. E. E. Clayton, president and Mesdames J. Parke Montague, E. V. Winkelbauer, R. T. Baughan, Thomas Harding and L. A. McCoy.

Play reviews by Frances Donovan featured the program for last night's semi-annual initiation dinner in the clubhouse when a large class of initiates was welcomed into the club.

On Feb. 12 the one district party of the year, a formal Valentine dance, will be held in Hollywood Riviera Country Club. Eighteen Junior Club members and their husbands will attend, having among their guests Mrs. W. I. Laughon, Senior Club president, her husband, Dr. W. I. Laughon; and Mr. and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, parents of Junior Club President Mrs. E. E. Clayton.

TO PLAN FOR BUNCO PARTY

Mrs. N. B. Russell, 1449 W. 214th street, newly-appointed wyes and means chairman for Hall's P.T.A., will have a committee meeting in her home next Monday at 1 p.m. to plan for the bunco party being given Tuesday, Feb. 15.

The following committee members are expected to attend: Mesdames W. E. Lewis, Glenn Spratt, L. L. Powell, O. Barnard, H. Norris, C. B. Humphrey, M. D. Heibert, Don Grey and H. T. Seaman.

MOTHERSINGERS IN GROUP-RIDE ARRANGEMENT

Phone 907-J if you wish transportation to the Monday night class rehearsal of the Torrance Council PTA Mothersingers.

Mrs. Norma Dobrick has volunteered to stand by her telephone on Mondays and act as headquarters to arrange rides for any ladies who would like to sing with the choral group, if they had a means of getting to the high school Monday evenings from 7 to 9. First volunteers to offer their cars for the plan were Mesdames Nadine Nichol, Kay Davis and Frances Fletcher. Several other members have already formed group-ride arrangements.

Mrs. Clara Witmer will act as librarian for the Mothersingers for the spring term. Her first duty is to check music to be used for the Mothersinger's appearance at Fern Avenue PTA program on Feb. 8.

Torrance Royal Neighbors Seat Mrs. Disario, Staff

Annual open installation of officers of Torrance Camp No. 8908, Royal Neighbors of America, held Wednesday evening of last week in Torrance Woman's club house, was marked by a beautifully impressive ritualistic service. A profusion of roses, carnations and ferns created an appropriate background for the rites. The lodge's own degree team, gowned in blue and white and wearing harmonizing floral muffs assisted in the ceremony which placed Angelina Disario in the chair of oracle.

Other officers installed were: Mary West, vice-oracle; Bertha Alcorn, junior past oracle; Vertie Grimm, chancellor; Mary Baker, recorder; Mary Conner, receiver; Mary Bevington, marshal; Florence Worfel, assistant marshal; Lottie Phillips, inner sentinel; Cordie White, outer sentinel; Martha Cooper, color bearer; Lucille Meyers, musician and Marie Bankston, captain of the degree staff.

Graces installed were: Zoe Dethiers, faith; Sophia Duncan, modesty; Joan Hanon, courage; Stelma Norris, unselfishness.

O.E.S. CHAPTER ANTICIPATES DEPUTY'S VISIT

Discussion of plans for the official visit of the deputy grand matron constituted an important part of the business at the regular meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star Thursday evening in Masonic Temple.

Hazel Fossum as chairman of arrangements, assisted by her committee, served delicious refreshments at the close of the chapter meeting.

Presiding were Mildred Evans, worthy matron and Leonard Babcock, worthy patron.

Louise Thompson, deputy grand matron of the 76th district, O.E.S., and member of Playa Linda Chapter, Hermosa Beach, will make her official visit here on Feb. 3.

AT BEDFORD HOME

Recent dinner guests at the Beach Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Bedford were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Claus, formerly of Torrance, and their two sons, Bernie and Kenny of Sherman Oaks.

MRS. J. HARRIS HOSTESS TO PTA BREAKFAST GROUP

Mrs. J. J. Harris and her committee were hosts to members of Orange Street P.T.A. and other interested women Wednesday morning when a kidnap breakfast was held at the Harris home on Monte Vista avenue.

The enthusiasm and support given the event was overwhelming, for the committee reported that people were waiting in line for their breakfast of doughnuts and coffee.

Mrs. Harry Kacmpfer, Mrs. H. W. Wilkins and Mrs. Herman Palm assisted Mrs. Harris.

Ligtenberg's Host Informal Evening Party

Mr. and Mrs. William Ligtenberg, of 1310 Manuel avenue, were dinner hosts recently to Mesdames Earl Eckert and Albert Posner.

Messrs. Eckert and Posner joined the group at the conclusion of a teachers' meeting which occupied them for the early part of the evening. Cards furnished diversion and refreshments were served at the close of play.
