

SEASIDE RANCHOS

MRS. HELEN CARLTON - Frontier 6185

Next Monday evening, Feb. 7, is the date of the Seaside Ranchos-Hollywood Riviera Home Owners Association meeting at the Riviera Beach club when J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools, and members of the School Board have been invited to participate in a panel discussion with the combined Home Owners school committee on the Southwest Torrance school situation.

The Seaside Ranchos educational committee, working through the Association will personally contact all homeowners in the tract in order that there will be a good turnout for this very important meeting when Seaside residents will be guests of the Hollywood Riviera Home Owners at their regular meeting.

The educational committees of both groups met in the homes of Mrs. G. H. Miller, chairman of Hollywood Riviera education group, to discuss school problems in this area, following up on their letter which was sent to the superintendent and school board members last week.

With a "come as you are" greeting early Monday morning, 50 women from Seaside Ranchos, Hollywood Riviera and Waleria were "kidnaped" to the Seaside home of Mrs. Edward Jeffrey for a PTA kidnap breakfast. Purpose of these breakfasts is to raise money for kitchen equipment at Waleria School. Mrs. Jeffrey and her committee—Mrs. Carl Larkins, Leonard Doyle, William Haegle, Byron Johnson and Paul Barth—served pancake and bacon breakfasts from 8 a.m. until noon.

Plans for the special Founders Day meeting on Feb. 10 were discussed at the monthly board meeting of the Waleria PTA when 20 officers and chairmen met at the Carl Larkins home in Seaside Ranchos this morning. Program Committee members for this special meeting which honors the founders of PTA are Mrs. Evar Janssen, Waleria, chairman, Mrs. Arthur Hackney, Hollywood Riviera and Mrs. Edward Jeffrey, Seaside.

Mrs. Paul Roettger, president of the Waleria PTA reminded her board members of the open Council meeting at Fern Avenue School Feb. 8 at 2 p.m. when First District officers will be speakers at this district day meeting which is open to all PTA members.

With an afternoon of movies, take-home favors of color books, and traditional birthday refreshments, little Gail Rowan celebrated her fifth birthday with a party for kindergarten friends and playmates at the Ev Rowan home Saturday afternoon. Little guests helping her celebrate were Wendy and Heidi Schmitz, Bonnie Johnson, Carolyn Greenwood, Vivian Heald, David Rosenberger, Elaine Malin, Pat and Susan Farnum, Gay Hurst and Tony Franklin, all of Seaside Ranchos.

Beginning the first of a series of calendar parties sponsored by the mothers of Girl Scout Troop 1055 to raise money to send all girls of the troop and guests to the summer camp at Griffith Park, Mrs. Robert Hyder was hostess to Seaside Girl Scout mothers, committee members and interested people at her home on Doris way Monday evening. Each of 12 present will then give a party for eight, with each of 8 giving a party for four in this calendar series.

Other Scout activities this week included the ice-skating party Saturday afternoon for the Girl Scouts and their friends at Hynes Skating Rink near Compton. Transportation is being provided by Meses. James Franklin, D. P. Quinlivan, Robert Mease and Harry Greenwood.

An all-girl party at the Edward Jeffrey home Saturday afternoon marked the eighth birthday of Miss Mary Kay Jeffrey when schoolmates and friends gathered for an afternoon of parlor games. Winners in the afternoon fun were Miss Mary Pederson, Gail Bowman, Cheryl Larkins and Alice Newborn. Refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served by Mrs. Jeffrey, assisted by Mrs. Carl Carlson to the honoree, Mary Kay Jeffrey, Judith Ann Naff, Lolly Hanover, Mary Johnson, Debby Clarke, Beth Gruver, Carol Lynn Carlson, Cheryl Larkins, Alice Newborn, of Seaside Ranchos, Mary Pederson, Redondo Beach and Gail Bowman, Hollywood Riviera.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Conover attended a wedding in San Diego Saturday afternoon, had supper in Tijuana, and returned to San Diego for a Saturday evening, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Hyder, as Waleria and Seaside Ranchos district chairman, attended the recent annual meeting of the Los Angeles Girl Scout Council, for all neighborhood, district and sectional chairmen, which was held at International Institute. Brunch served by members of the Institute, people of all nations, preceded the meeting at which Mrs. Maree, new L. A. Council head and her corps of officers, including Mrs. Elsie Church of Lomita as Harbor sectional chairman, were installed.

A recent guest of the Wayne Schooleys at their Doris way home has been Mrs. Schooley's mother, Mrs. T. M. Wallace of Minneapolis, who will make her home in Redondo.

Recent television guests at the Charlton Mewborn home were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Burton, Harlow and Jeffrey Dale and Miss Debby Clarke, all of Seaside Ranchos.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Locke of Oakland were visiting former neighbors on Tuesday and Wednesday. Locke, a captain with United Airlines, is now flying out of San Francisco and the Lockes plan to establish their home in that area. They formerly resided at 23034 Doris way.
