

Four Escape In Spectacular Lomita Crash

Four occupants miraculously escaped injury last Thursday in a spectacular two-car collision at the intersection of 262nd and Regent streets.

One of the cars, driven by Jordan Raymond Bledsoe, 20, 26225 Ebbelmann street, plunged out of control and came to rest on its side against a pole about 80 feet from the point of impact, California Highway Patrol officers said.

The other car, a coupe driven by a Torrance High School student, Sumao Omata, 4008 Del Amo road, contained passengers Pat Watson, 324 Harbor Hills, and Hoyt Patton, 1905 Sartori street.

Bledsoe's car was traveling west on 262nd street when it

Candidates for Torrance Queen Title Sought

Girls, a high IQ is not necessary to enter the IQ-TV contest—just a lot of Bon-Ton Ties, according to members of the Junior Women's Club.

This judge-podge of initials, resembling a bowl of evaporated alphabet soup is the club's way of directing the attention of all the young beauties in the community to the Annual Torrance Queen contest to start in the near future.

The queen will be elected by popular vote of the community by tickets—one of which will put a television set in the home of the purchaser.

Money derived from the sale of the tickets will be used to bolster the building fund of the Y.W.C.A.

was met by Omata's vehicle approaching the blind intersection from the north on Regent, officers said.

Students Stage 'Sweater Swirl' Shindig Saturday

Maurice Clark and the "Tom Throes" will provide the entertainment for an informal "Sweater Swirl" dance to be held in the Civic Auditorium Saturday night, according to Rose Eisenberg, commissioner of publicity at Torrance High School.

Under the sponsorship of the Student Council the dance is being given in an effort to promote friendship, cooperation and team-work among the various schools in the community.

Students from schools in the Bay League, Marine League, El Camino College, and Palms Verdés College have been asked to attend the affair and to wear their various letterman, club and athletic sweaters.

Tickets for the dance are 50 cents.

Members of the dance committee include: Ginger Shew, Beverly Lester, Rose Eisenberg, John Schultz, Joan Davis, Bill Robinson, Bob LaBian, Janet Lowler, Chuck Schiefel, and Willie Specht.

Several members of the high school faculty will attend the affair.
