

NECESSITY OF RED CROSS REACHING ITS 1949 GOAL EXPLAINED BY FUND CHIEF

It is imperative that Los Angeles Red Cross reach its $2,184,000 quota in the 1949 fund-raising campaign or face the peril of curtailment of vital obligations to the communities which it serves.

This was the statement made today by Volunteer General Chairman Clarence S. Bessemyer upon receipt of word that the Red Cross nationally has surpassed its $600,000 goal, as disclosed in a "progress report" issued by National Fund Drive Chief E. Roland Harriman, New York bank and railroad executive.

Key programs operated here for community betterment by the Red Cross—including the expanding blood service, the traditional activities in the health, safety and educational fields and the assistance given hospitalized and disabled war veterans—must be financed by funds collected locally, Bessemyer explained. In addition, Los Angeles must be prepared to handle the emergency phase of any disaster—earthquake, fire, flood or explosion, the fund chairman said.

Los Angeles and Greater New York chapters are the only major units lagging in the 1949 campaign, Bessemyer pointed out.

To ward off the prospect of an "unprepared Red Cross in Los Angeles and vicinity," thousands of volunteer house-to-house and office-to-office canvassers have pledged to remain on the job until an "over the top" report is recorded, Bessemyer stated further.

NEAFUS BABY DEDICATED AT CHURCH SUNDAY

Houseguests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Herren, 1912 W. 259th place, this week are Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Neafus and their two children, Linda and Barbara Jean of San Francisco.

To honor the dedication of Barbara Jean Neafus at the Assembly of God Church Sunday, a dinner party was held with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herren and daughter, Connie Jean, of Torrance, the Neafus family and hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Herren in attendance.

Camp Fire Council Fire To Draw 350

Council Fire for Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds will be held Friday, May 6, at 7:30 p.m. in Anderson, memorial auditorium, when 250 girls will receive certificates for trail seekers and wood gatherers' rank, and other honors.

The girls' parents will be honor guests, Mrs. Margaret Trimble, harbor district director, discloses.

Mrs. Eugene Pollard's Camp Fire group from Mary Star of the Sea school will give the fire lighting ceremony.

Mrs. Donna Reese, district chairman, will give the welcoming address. Mrs. Josephine Crossland, chairman of the Leaders' association, will award the trail seekers' certificates.

Mrs. Josephine Melendez, Camp Fire leader from Fifteenth Street school, will award wood gatherers' certificates. Mrs. Opal Michaels, Camp Fire leader from Cabrillo ave. school, will award the "birthday" honor, and Mrs. Alys Wins, Camp Fire leader, Mary Star of the Sea, will award 10-hour community service shield.

Mrs. Helen Clemens, Blue Bird leader at Point Fermin school, will award fly-up certificates to girls who have gone from Blue Birds into Camp Fire work.

Camp Fire and Blue Bird songs will be sung by the girls, and about 350 persons are expected to attend.

Symphony Association to Sponsor Festival of Arts

The May Festival of the Arts, the first of its kind to be sponsored by the South Bay Symphony Association, and scheduled for May 21 and 22 at Redondo Union High School, is already creating considerable interest with reservations pouring in from the area's leading artists, composers, photographers and other allied craftsmen.

Dance studios and choral groups are busy with rehearsals for the symphony, choral and ballet concert which will highlight the two-day festival.

The committee has announced there is space for all who still wish to exhibit arts and crafts. High school and college classes will be limited, however, to 30 entries each.

The Symphony Association is a non-profit organization and no charge will be made to anyone for exhibits but a small rental charge will be made for commercial booths. Merchants, church groups or fraternal organizations who are interested in lending their support to this event which includes the South Bay area, El Segundo, Lomita and Torrance, may mail a letter of application to the South Bay Symphony Association, Box 546, Hermosa Beach.

The event will be a very colorful affair, with sketch artists, stilling musicians, models, and street dancers, lending atmosphere; decorated booths displaying local wares and a beautiful flower show, sponsored by several garden clubs together with the presentation of the symphony, choral and ballet concert.

Mayor Charles E. Wortham of Redondo Beach, association president and Miss Elyse Aehle, orchestra conductor, extend invitations to every artist, craftsman, musician or dancer in the entire area to participate in this most pretentious undertaking by the South Bay Symphony Association.

The event will be a very colorful affair, with sketch artists, stilling musicians, models, and street dancers, lending atmosphere; decorated booths displaying local wares and a beautiful flower show, sponsored by several garden clubs together with the presentation of the symphony, choral and ballet concert.

Music Week To be Noted

To further the observance of National Music Week, May 23, the Wilmington Community Sing will present a Music Festival in Banning High School auditorium Monday evening, May 2 at 7:30 p.m.

The program is open to the general public throughout the harbor area and surrounding towns and will present outstanding musical organizations as well as community singing. No charge will be made for this evening of music by talented artists.

BROWNIES MAKE MOTHERS DAY GIFTS FRIDAY

Mrs. D. J. Richards, leader of Brownie Troop No. 1096, was hostess to the members of the troop at her home Friday.

Mothers Day gifts, their current project, were the center of attraction for the girls and plans outlined for their admission at the regular Brownie Day Camp at Torrance Park this summer. Refreshments followed.

Leslie Steigh Presented With PTA Life Membership

Leslie Steigh of 2219 W. 254th street was presented with an Honorary Life Membership by Lomita Elementary PTA Thursday night in the presence of more than 125 members and guests of the association.

Mr. Steigh, who has been Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop No. 115 of Lomita for a number of years and lent his support to many youth activities of the town, qualified for the signal honor which is given for "outstanding service to children and youth" by PTA units and councils all over the state, was presented with the certificate and pin by Mrs. D. J. Cressey, association president.

Moneys derived from the purchase of these memberships are used by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers to provide a Student Loan Fund to aid worthy students in continuing their education beyond high school.

Announcement was made that the association was still pressing its drive for a crossing guard at the intersection of 247th street and Narbonne avenue.

Mrs. Cressey urged those planning to attend the tea to purchase to secure $1 tickets through the PTA. Twenty-five cents of each ticket will go to the Tenth District Child Welfare Fund. These tickets will apply on the complete purchase price of admission at the box office on the nights of May 9 and 10.

With 28 fathers and mothers registered for her classroom, Mrs. Carol Brigham received the first colony for the next month for her students.

Mrs. Jane Rye, school principal, welcomed the PTA members and announced the proposed child psychology class to be held early in September if sufficient

CRISPY ICE CREAM PIE

Peanut brittle ice cream pie, homemade, crunchy and very professional-looking can be the answer to your dessert problem when time and money are at a premium. Here is an economical recipe that can be prepared, quickly in the morning, taken out of your refrigerator at dessert time, and served taste-perfect in attractive wedges. Secret of the recipe is an ice cream concentrate made from milk, cream, milk, sugar and egg yolks, which, when water and flavoring are added, produces one of the smoothest ice creams you have ever tasted.

For a sure-hit combination, we suggest the peanut brittle ice cream in a chocolate crumb crust. If your ordinary pie pan does not fit into the freezing compartment of your refrigerator, here's an idea: Just let the regular freezing tray pinch it, and then cut the dessert in wedge shapes, or in squares—if you prefer.

PEANUT BRITTLE ICE CREAM

1 can ice cream concentrate
2 teaspoons vanilla
1½ cups water
½ cup crushed peanut brittle

First set the temperature control of your refrigerator at the coldest point. Then to one can of ice cream concentrate, gradually add 1½ cups of water and two teaspoons of vanilla. Mix thoroughly with rotary beater or electric mixer. Pour into freezing tray and place in the coldest part of the freezing unit. Freeze until entire mixture is solid—then break up and spoon frozen mixture into deep bowl. Beat until just slightly softer than creamy mash potatoes. Stir in the peanut brittle and pour into the chocolate crumb crust. Sprinkle about two tablespoons of crushed peanut brittle over the top of the pie and place it back in the freezing unit until ready to serve. This makes five or six servings.

CHOCOLATE CRUMB CRUST

1½ cup crushed chocolate wafers
¼ cup softened butter or margarine

Blend the crushed chocolate wafers and very soft butter or margarine until thoroughly combined. Pat firmly against the sides and bottom of an 8-inch pie pan or one-quarter freezing tray. Chill for at least an hour before filling with the peanut brittle ice cream.

STUDENTS ENJOY HOSPITALITY OF WILLIAM R. DORR

Members of the Music Appreciation class at Palos Verdes College today were entertained by William Ripley Dorr at his home 1637 Via Arriba, Palos Verdes Estates. Mr. Dorr, who is a nationally known organist and choir director, showed the class an organ which he had built into his home, explained the development of the organ and played recordings made by his St. Luke's Chorists. He also showed the students his garden, which is now in full bloom and which overlooks the whole Santa Monica Bay.

WEEK END IS BUSY FOR COURT ST. CATHERINE

Affairs making the weekend a busy one for members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, included the annual communion breakfast Sunday morning and, on Monday evening, initiation and reception ceremonies for eight new members.

Meltons-by-the-Sea in Manhattan Beach was the setting for the breakfast commemorating the Court's fourth anniversary. Mrs. Howard Owen, grand regent, presided over the program, introducing the guest speaker, Mrs. Patrick Lewis of Hollywood, past state regent, and other honored guests: Mrs. Joseph Greaves of Redondo Beach, first deputy for the court; Mrs. Catherine Walters, of South Gate, who instituted the local court; Mrs. H. W. Phinney of Compton, present district deputy; Mrs. Frank Farrell, chairman for the breakfast, welcomed the guests, and Mrs. Frank Forrester, past grand regent, also participated in the program. Table appointments and programs carried out the CDA colors, purple and gold.

Mrs. Farrell proceeded to Tujaunga where, on Sunday afternoon, she assisted the state treasurer, Mrs. Art Messerschmidt, with the institution of a new CDA court in that city. The ceremonies were held at the home of the late John Steven McGroarty, the writer, on McGroarty Terrace.

A class of eight new members was received into Court St. Catherine at impressive initiation ceremonies Monday evening. Mrs. Clara Richmond, Clayton Bowen, Don Gowden, Peter C. Diers, Glenn Richmond, Edward Shamer, Douglas Simcoe, John W. Sullivan, and Kenneth Zschmidt, officers, who were hostesses,
