

Area Manager for Edison Company Named

L. E. Jenkins, Southern California Edison Company District Manager at Monrovia, has been appointed manager of the company's office for this area to fill the vacancy left by the death of C. C. Bartlett last May 23.

According to R. C. McFadden, vice-president of the power company, Jenkins will assume his new duties on July 1 at the company's district office in Redondo Beach.

First becoming associated with the Edison Company in 1926, Jenkins has had wide and varied experience within the company. He has served in Alhambra, Vernon, Whittier, Inglewood, Santa Monica, Beverly Hills and Monrovia. He was credit agent for the company at Santa Monica for eight years, and local manager at Beverly Hills prior to his appointment as Monrovia district manager in 1946.

WINDOW WASHING

When you wash windows, dry them on the outside with vertical strokes and on the inside with horizontal strokes. Then you can tell if any remaining streaks are on the outside or inside.

Businessman Nominated to Welfare Board

Sam Levy, prominent Torrance businessman, was recently nominated to serve on the newly expanded board of directors of the Welfare Federation of Los Angeles.

Levy's nomination was made in conjunction with the federation's 25th anniversary for 1500 Civic and Welfare leaders June 29 in the Convention Hall, Los Angeles. His name was submitted by the local Welfare Council.

Others nominated were Floyd Y. Snyder, San Pedro; Mrs. John Shields, Harbor City; and Mrs. Lucille Burkhalter and Frode B. Kilstofte, both of Wilmington.

The federation board is being enlarged from 27 to 270 members to include direct representation from each of 17 cities and scores of name localities federated in the Community

Pair Escapes Serious Hurts In Auto Mishap

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cook 24314 Allione street, escaped serious injury last week when their auto left the road and ran into a ditch near Flagstaff, Arizona.

Cook, who was driving, was uninjured but Mrs. Cook received painful bruises in the accident which occurred while the pair was returning to Lomita from a 10-day vacation in Texas and New Mexico.

The Cooks visited the Carlsbad caverns, the Painted Desert, the Petrified Forest, and the Grand Canyon on their tour.

TORRANCE RESIDENT CALLED TO UTAH

Mrs. May Harris, of 828 B Sartori Avenue, left recently for Springville, Utah, where she was called by the accidental drowning of her grandson, Kent, 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Harris, formerly of Torrance.

The baby was drowned in a supposedly dry irrigation canal which crosses the Harris property. Survivors include his sister Claudia seven, and brother Carl, four years old.

Harris is employed in the personnel department of U. S. Steel's Ironton plant (Geneva) Provo, Utah.
