Rotarians Install Club Officers At Dinner Dance

In a festive Fourth of July spirit, accentuated by gay colored sport shirts worn by the men and bright hued cottoneas and prints by their ladies, members of the Torrance Rotary Club celebrated the inauguration of new club officers at a dinner dance last Thursday at the Palos Verdes Country Club. Pinch-hitting for Reed H. Parkin, Robert I. Plomret, Jr. took over and did an outstanding job as master of ceremonies on an hour's notice when Mr. and Mrs. Parkin were obliged to remain home because of the threatened serious illness of their son. O. A. Kresse "lowered the boom" in the traditional humorous manner upon the head of retiring president, Dr. John W. Beeman, after which Kresse presented him with an appropriately engraved wrist watch, the gift of the club. In exhorting the "short-comings" of club members and the levying of fines to enhance the club treasury, "Demoter" Kresse brought bursts of laughter from all but the unhappy victims of his assessments.

In a brief serious ceremony, incoming club officers were introduced. They include: W. T. (Hap) Tillotson, president; Harvel Guttenfelder, vice-president; Roy Metcalf, secretary; W. E. Bowen, treasurer; and A. L. Jackson, A. Russell Lund, who with Beeman, Guttenfelder, and Tillotson comprise the board of directors. Phillip W. Benjamin is editor of "The Rig," club publication; and Harry Abramson, associate editor.

Credit for the highly enjoyable party last Thursday goes to Charles V. Jones, chairman; Reed H. Parkin, Robert I. Plomret, Jr., Harvel Guttenfelder, Sam Levy, O. A. Kresse, Russell Lund, and Grover Whyte, committeemen.
