FILM COUPLE TO TALK AT YOUTH RALLY HERE

That oft used movie plot of how two young people win screen contests, meet in Hollywood, fall in love, and climb the stairway to success does come true once in a while—and to Torrance Sunday night will come a pair who made it true.

Beautiful motion picture actress Gale Storm and her husband actor Lee Bonnell, will make a personal appearance here as featured guests at the second city-wide youth rally.

Adding attractively to the program will be some 35 to 40 teenage girls, members of the Torrance High School Girls' Glee Club, who will blend their voices together in their first public appearance since the school bells were stilled last June.

The high school and college set for which the rallies have been planned by the Torrance Council of Churches will hear the popular actress and her husband relate some of the behind the scenes background of Hollywood, the world's film capital.

The two-hour long event includes entertaining, community singing, refreshments, and an "open period" during which the audience will have an opportunity to talk to the film couple or "just mix socially" comment on the Rev. Cecil England, who is directing the arrangements for the youth event.

One of Miss Storm's best known pictures was last year's "Miracle of 34th Street" in which she starred with Don DeFore and Victor Moore. She has recently completed her first picture at Universal-International Studios, "Abandoned," in which she appears with Dennis O'Keefe.

Bonnell, a bobby sox idol, recently has devoted most of his time to his business interests and has been inactive in major film work. His last few films have been religious films such as are now being made by many Hollywood stars.

The program, which is slated to start at 7 p.m., is expected to draw a capacity crowd to the First Christian Church auditorium, Engracia and Arlington avenues. "I hope we don't have to supply autograph paper," quipped Rev. England, pastor.

Mike Marienthal, nationally known athlete and World War II hero, described his experiences on both the gridiron and the battle field at last Sunday's rally at the First Methodist Church.

The First Christian Church Youth Fellowship committee, including Joyce Franzen, Betty Branman, Jean Franzen, Valerie Daniels, and Nancy Prime will serve the refreshments.

Food Merchants, Clerks' Union Parley Slated

For the purpose of discussing terms of a new contract, market operators in the Harbor Area are slated to meet with the Retail Clerks' Union Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the Torrance City Hall, according to Frank S. Selover, executive secretary of the Harbor Area Employers' Council.

Present contracts expire November 1.

Chosen to meet with Haskell Tidwell, secretary of the Retail Clerks Local No. 605, are the following members of the Food Division of the HAEC: Thomas K. Ware, Valley Food Market, Gardena; J. W. Jensen, Better Foods Markets, Inc., Wilmington; Andrew Vaselenko, Vaselenko's Markets, San Pedro and Lomita.

A fourth member yet to be named will represent the chain stores, Selover said. John Binkley, attorney for the council, is to sit-in on the meeting as an advisor.

The Monday night meeting, first of a possible series of confabs, was set after the council received a letter from Tidwell dated September 1 in which he stated the union was ready to meet with the Council.

Registration Closes Today

If you are not a registered voter in this district, and if you intend to vote in Nov. 8 special election, you'll have to register today before 5 p.m. This was the warning issued by City Clerk A. H. Bartlett who estimated that "hundreds of local people will be rudely surprised" when they go to the polls and find they cannot vote because they haven't registered. Registration desks have been set up at the Torrance branch of Bank of America and at the City Hall.

Attendance at Teenage Affairs Indicates Need

Indication that the city needs to consider finding an answer to the teenager's question of "What'll we do tonight?" can be found in the increasing number of youths attending the weekly teenage affairs staged in the VFW Hall. Starting with only a small group several weeks ago the Thursday night affairs are constantly attracting more and more of the younger set each week. Last Thursday nearly 50 gathered at the veterans hall. Some of the comments and suggestions from the teenagers included the remarks: "The civic is too large for the amount of kids that attend; the VFW Hall is about the right size; if we only had a record player; a cozy small hall helps stop inferiority complex toward dancing; what we really need is our own hall." Aiding the cause was a donation of a ping pong table and a set of 50 records from Jack Hall. A monetary donation from the Lions Club also helped plug the program. Among the adults who have volunteered their services are three Torrance police officers: Sgt. Swayne Johnson, Don Clark, and Gale Whitacre. Also aiding the youth program to get started are Mike Fenwick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jakubowski, Jess Dean, Ralph Jakubowski, and John Ott.
