

Ask Foreign Trade Zone

LeRoy D. Owen, chairman of the world trade committee of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, reported yesterday Chamber directors recommended a foreign trade zone be established by the Los Angeles Board of Harbor Commissioners.

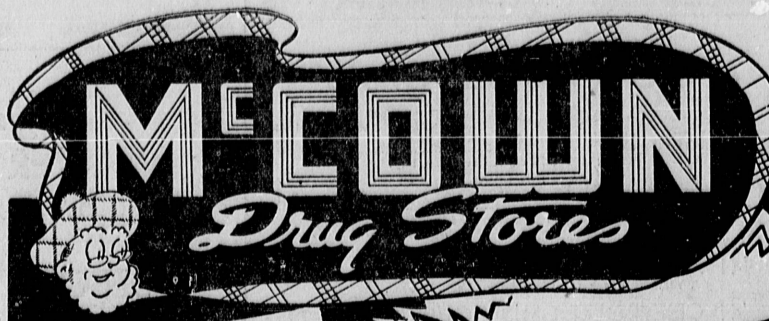

The Chamber recommended use of existing facilities at Warehouse No. 1, Berth 60, in the Outer Harbor at San Pedro.

A foreign trade zone, Owen explained, is a "segregated" and policed area under U. S. Customs supervision within a port where foreign merchandise may be deposited pending decision regarding entry or re-export.
