

THERE IS A TRICK . . . to every trade, and the trick here is to hit and not get hit. Sergeant Percy Bennett shows Patrolman Harold Trezise how it is done during part of the training course given to new policemen. Applications for openings on the Torrance Police Department are now being accepted. Applicants for the job, which pays $242 monthly to start, must be 21-35 years old, a resident of the city, a qualified elector and must file before May 21. [Staff photo.]

Reported Good

Fishing for seagulls was good at Crowley Lake, according to a report reaching here Monday.

Herb Jacobs, redoubtable chef, reports that he is looking for H. P. Osborne, Jr., and will demand a new hand from him.

Seems that Osborne, Dr. E. E. Scott and D. C. Osborne were fishing and every time they cast out the bait a seagull would grab it.

Osborne snared a gull . . and hauled it in, grabbed Jacobs' hand axe and let fly . . missed the gull . lost the axe in the lake . . . and apparently came home empty-handed.

VALLEJO VISITORS

GARDENA COURT IS FACED WITH TIGHT SCHEDULE OF CASES

New Trial To Thomas Perkin

Judge Grants

Thomas H. Perkin, former Torrance police officer who re-ceived a jury verdict of guilty for allegedly accepting bribes from a bookmaker, has been granted a new trial by Judge Gordon Thompson of San Diego.

D.A. FIGHTS REQUEST

D.A. FIGHTS REQUEST

Perkin asked for a second trial on grounds of misconduct of the District Attorney's office and was granted the request.
However, the District Attorney's office immediately appealed the request and as a result the case moves up into the Court of Appeals. Due to a full calendar of the higher court it is not expected that the next trial will be held before September.

Perkin, who resigned last October after four years as Pollee Chief of Escondido, was arrested Jan. 2 on charges of accepting $700 in bribes to permit bookmaking in Escondido.
He pleaded not guilty.
Following the trial Superior Judge Thompson raised the bail from $2500 to $5000.

unning a trip East this summer? Then here's w to explore America on your way East and back:

Go East on one of Southern Pacific's Four Scenic Routes — return on shother — see an entirely different part of the country each way. In fact, see twice as much!

For example: go East on the Golden State Route, the low-alitude way from Los Angeles to Chicago across the range and grain land of the nation. Then return on the sunser Route from New Orleans to Los Angeles via the lush bayou lands, the rolling Texas plains, El Paso and Southern Arizona's dude ranch country.

Or - return on the Overland Route straight across mid-continent from Chicago to San Francisco, or on the Shasta Route via Portland through the evergreen Pacific Northwest.

Your choice of accommodations, too. In addition to comfortable chair cars and luxurious standard Pullmans, there's through economical tourist Pullman service between Los Angeles and Chicago, Kansas City, Houston, New Orleans, Portland, San Francisco and many other destinations.

More information? Ask your near-by Southern Pacific Agent. He'll be glad to help you plan your trip and take care of tickets and reservations.
