

SIX HARBOR AREA VARIETY STORES RE-OPEN

NEWBERRY, WOOLWORTH and KRESS Are Back!

Thursday, July 15, all of our Harbor area stores will again be open. We will be ready to serve you and the tens of thousands of people who think of the Harbor area business communities as their shopping centers.

Plan to do your buying in your nearest Harbor area city (San Pedro, Wilmington or Torrance) the next shopping trip you take. And come into our newly-opened stores -- see for yourself the wide variety of new merchandise we are offering. Learn again the convenience of having a modern variety store just a few steps up or down the street.

Plan to Visit Our Stores Soon

We are happy to be back again. Our absence from the Harbor area is over. We urge that all groups in our Harbor area cities unite with the single purpose of making each community the real shopping center that its residents have a right to expect.
