

'Fiesta Moods' Opening Friday Morning Program

The Friday Morning Study Club of San Pedro will inaugurate the twenty-third season Friday at 10 a. m. in the Y.W.C.A. with "Fiesta Moods," a program saluting the California centennial.

Mrs. Gilbert B. Myers, program chairman, said Spanish dancers in colorful costumes will be featured. They are Adelina, Esperanza and Tavo, Southern California Spanish dance interpreters.

For several seasons they have appeared at the Santa Barbara fiesta, and have appeared in concerts throughout the United States and in Mexico City.

Esperanza will present Spanish songs, for which she also is known. Juan Serrano, concert marimba artist who appeared with Xavier Cugat last season, will appear with her.

Mrs. Elmer L. Higgs, president, will be in charge of the meeting, and Mrs. L. F. Struthers of Wilmington, vice president, will conduct the opening.

Membership renewals for the club year are being accepted by Mrs. Michael Perdok, membership chairman, 3707 Barbara street. Women in the community interested in membership may contact her.

MR. AND MRS. ROSS L. WOOFER Wed in Church Ceremony . . .

Vows Are Exchanged in Presence of 200 Guests

First Baptist church was the setting for the wedding of Tommie Jo Cecil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Cecil of 2214-C Cabrillo avenue, and Rose L. Woofler, son of M. P. Woofler, of 1908 1/2 Martina avenue. Rev. C. Miles Northrup officiated at the double-ring, candlelight ceremony attended by 200 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white slipper satin gown fashioned with yoke of French imported lace, which material also was used to edge her veil. An heirloom locket was her only jewelry and she carried orchids and gardenias. Gardenias formed the coronet from which her veil of nylon illusion was suspended.

Miss Zelda Bourne was maid of honor in pastel green taffeta. Her bouquet was of white and pink sweet peas and carnations, with pale green ribbon streamers. The bridesmaids, all sisters of the bride, were the Misses Pat Cecil, Peggy Cecil and Mrs. James Yarbrough.

Their gowns were fashioned alike of pink, blue and orchid taffeta respectively. All carried arm bouquets of carnations and sweet peas with their gowns. Little Cheryl Hillier, of Gardena, was flower girl and Richard Florence, of Redondo, was ring bearer. Orphie Jones was the bridegroom's attendant and ushers were Clyde Hess, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Paul Woofler, his brother and Jim Yarbrough, brother-in-law of the bride.

Miss Joan Tuck, at the organ, played the accompaniment for Miss Nelle Hocott, who sang "Always" and "Because." At the reception which followed in the church social rooms, Mrs. Robert Florence and Miss

Program Gets Under Way for PTA Council Year

With the organization of a Parent-Teacher Association today in the auditorium at Normont Terrace to be known as the Normont Elementary Association to be associated with the school under construction at 253rd and Petroleum streets, the number of associations in Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council will now number 14 units.

Scheduled to assist with the organization this morning was Mrs. William Robertson, director of Extension for Tenth District P.T.A.; Mrs. J. J. Millard, harbor regional director for the district and Mrs. E. R. Walker, president of Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council.

Three hundred and seventy children east of Normandie avenue now are attending classes at Harbor City School in half-day sessions awaiting the opening of the new school about Dec. 1.

J. Wiero Pearson, new principal for the school, now at Harbor City School until the new school is ready for occupancy, was instrumental in having the Parent-Teacher Association organized before the pupils move into the new school. All members taken in today will be charter members of the new association.

Chest Drive Planned
Mrs. Hazel Stanton, Community Chest major for Lomita-San Pedro P.T.A. Council, was hostess to all chest majors in the various associations of the Council at her San Pedro home. Alan Flite, general director of the Community Chest was the speaker. The work for the coming drive was outlined and hotelation meetings arranged.

Membership Stressed
P.T.A. membership drives to get under way in all associations of the Lomita-San Pedro Council in October were discussed at a recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Humphrey, council membership chairman, 1653 W. 223rd street, Torrance.

Light refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. Don Grey and Mrs. W. A. Galbreth.

Membership chairmen from this area attending were Mmes. H. J. McPeak, Harbor City; Don Grey, Halldale avenue; N. H. Brown, Lomita Elementary and H. W. Kaempfer, Orange Street.

Our guests included Mrs. E. R. Walker, school president; Mrs. Herman Ludwig, Harbor City P.T.A. president and Mrs. A. C. Akerman, president of Barton Hill P.T.A.

The home of Mrs. F. F. Allen, 1250 W. Third street, San Pedro, was the setting for an instructive and interesting meeting.
