

Cub Scouts Masquerade for Halloween Costume Party

The annual Cub Scout Halloween party at the Lomita Kiwanis Scout building Saturday night was another howling success with "fun" as the watchword for the entire party.

In charge of the games were Carl Westfall, Scoutmaster, and assisting was William Bean.

The flag ceremony with two Cub Scouts and a Boy Scout leading the group, opened the festivities and was followed by the singing of "America, The Beautiful" led by Mrs. C. E. Woodward.

There were prizes galore for the winners in the group of amusing games planned for everyone from the tiniest child to the adults present. Cub Scouts and their entire families and many invited guests made up the crowd that filled the hall.

Festivities began with the grand march and every child dressed in costume for the party moving around the edge of the room as the judges selected the ten best costumes. Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Joosten and Mrs. Irene Howe.

After circling the hall several times the following were awarded the prizes: Leighs Church, Steven Allen, Sheri Dee Thomas, Donnie and Raymond Bishop, Dennis Hudson, Russell Bushnell, Kenny Mitchell, Evelyn Sampson and Jean and Joan Steigh.

Games consisted of a pillowcase relay, peanut scramble for children under six years of age and prizes were jack-o-lanterns, peanuts and chews; sit-up-the-pop bottle with Cubs and their dads participating; an apple-rolling contest and musical chairs with John Anderson and Thomas Chapman winning prizes in the children's group and Mrs. Charles Hatfield for the adults. A bubble-gum contest with Cubs and their mothers taking part caused no end of merriment and was won by Mrs. Georgia Bushnell and son Radford. A contest strictly arranged for the men in which they had to dress in women's clothes was won by Orville Balcorn and S. Sampson. At 9:30 the closing ceremony of the Cub Scouts was held and everyone lined up along the refreshment table for homemade cake, ice cream, punch and coffee for the adults.

Mothers of the Cub Scouts and Den Mothers furnished the cakes, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Funds for the prizes, apples and other refreshments had been previously raised by the Cub Scouts when they realized about $80 from a doughnut sale.

MOOSEHEART DAY IS OBSERVED BY LOCAL CHAPTERS

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, held a short business meeting last night. They adjourned early and joined the Loyal Order of Moose at V.F.W. Hall in celebration of Mooseheart Day. An entertaining program was given and refreshments were served, concluding a very enjoyable affair.

At the meeting earlier in the evening, gifts were brought for the Christmas Box to be sent to Mooseheart. Gifts were many and varied.

Plans were made for the card party to be held next Wednesday evening at the Woman's Clubhouse. The usual games of bridge, pinocle, five hundred, and buncie will be played. Refreshments will be served after the games. The public is urged to attend.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVITIES—Cornstalks, pumpkins, witches and hobgoblins were much in evidence at parties held last week in Lomita. The annual Cub Scout Halloween party of Lomita Pack No. 218 was held at the Lomita Kiwanis Scout Hall Saturday night and highlighting the activities was the costume parade. In the top picture four youngsters who won prizes in the parade were grouped in front of the fireplace. They are Leighs Church, Steven Allen, Sheri Dee Thomas and Dennis Hudson. In the center picture are shown Ronald Mullens in costume and Cub Scout Jerold Waters viewing the witch which graced the entrance to the hall. Members of the Lomita Fuchsia Club held their Halloween festivities Thursday evening following the business meeting. Jack Bauman of the Palos Verdes Begonia Farms, speaker during the program hour, is seen at the extreme left. Mrs. C. O. Eipper, who won a prize for her attractive costume, Paul English, Mrs. English and Mrs. Raymond Lee complete the group. (Lomita News Photos by Art Willey).
