HONORS ASSEMBLY OFFICER WEDNESDAY

Alice Schultz, president of the Rebekah Assembly of California was honored when Trio Rebekah Lodge No. 240 entertained Wednesday evening in the social hall of Presbyterian Church. The occasion marked her social visit to the lodge.

Other honored guests, members of the Rebekah Assembly of California were Florence Bonetto, junior past president; Winifred E. Bertsch, marshal; Minerva Gandy, conductor; Elvira Nobbs, musician; Cora Grant, past president of the Rebekah Assembly of Wyoming; Ann K. Brown, deputy of District 84, Winifred Jones, deputy of District 66.

During recess called by the noble grand a beautiful presentation to Mrs. Schultz was made. Her gift was a bell with a horseshoe good luck emblem to add to her hobby collection. During the presentation, made in horseshoe formation, with girls carrying gold bells, Winifred Bruse sang, "The Bells are Ringing for Me and My Gal."

At tables beautiful with blue and gold decorations delicious refreshments were served.

Chairman for the evening was Olive Veatch, whose committee included Helen Wilson, Thelma Whitacre, Hattie Schroeder, Vanda Heape, Florence Meng, Florida Whitacre, Georgia Tappin, Martha Carter and Elizabeth Tappin.

Visitors were present from the following lodges, Santa Rosa, Mission in San Francisco, Ocean Queen, Paloma, Verduga, Delmar, Santa Monica, Silver Wave, Silver Crest, Gold Crest, Neta Deau, Banning, San Fernando, Community, Fullerton, Compton, and Angeles Mesa.

YULE PARTY PLANS ARE ARRANGED BY FUCHSIA SOCIETY

Plans for a Christmas party were made at the South Bay Branch of the National Fuchsia Society of America Thursday evening in Grant Community Hall.

Asked for suggestions, many members were interested in creating festive arrangements for dining or coffee tables, mantels or doorways, showing the holiday trends.

Yuletide customs will be discussed by the featured speaker and there will be music and an exchange of gifts. Refreshments appropriate to the holiday season will be served.

An interesting and instructive talk on epiphany culture by Paul Fort, was illustrated by colored slides of blossoms grown in his lath house, some of which measured 10 inches in breadth.
