MARRIAGE 'IS NONE OF OUR BUSINESS', ROACH

Action by the Board of Supervisors to authorize the reprinting of 50,000 copies of a booklet containing premarital advice was held up recently when Supervisor Leonard J. Roach declared that "It is none of our business."

The request for authorization to reprint copies of the booklet, "Steps to Happiness in Marriage," was submitted to the supervisors by County Probate Officer John M. Zuck, who said that the demand for the booklet has been so heavy that county marrage license bureaus no longer have copies to distribute.

Roach balked at approving the request, 'saying he felt that the county government "has no business in distributing such information."

Because only three supervisors were present at the meeting.

marriage license bureaus no longer have copies to distribute.

Roach balked at approving the request, saying he felt that the county government "has no business in distributing such information."

Because only three supervisors were present at the meeting today, Roach's refusal was sufficient to delay action. A unanimous vote was required for approval.
