

MR. AND MRS. PAUL G. FLEMING

FLEMING AND BEADLE VOWS ARE EXCHANGED

At home following their honeymoon in Phoenix, Arizona, are Paul G. Fleming and his bride, the former Oleta Beadle of Torrance. The couple exchanged vows at the Wedding Manor, Los Angeles. Attending the bride was Mary Tibbetts of Harbor City, as matron of honor and John Fleming of Torrance was his brother's best man. Mrs. Fleming, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Laningham of Tucumcari, N.M., attended West Texas State Teachers College and later taught in Childress, Texas, schools. For six years she has been employed in the purchasing department of National Supply Company. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ida Fleming of Lomita. Formerly a National Supply employee for six years, he has been in Army Transport Service which takes him from San Francisco to the Orient. They will leave soon for San Francisco to make their home.

Baby Shower Compliments Mrs. Hartley

Mrs. William Hartley of 1731 W. 234th street, Kettler Knolls, was honored Tuesday at an enjoyable baby shower given by Mrs. Howard Black and Mrs. Robert Juvet.

Following shower games, attractively wrapped gifts banked on a table, were presented to Mrs. Hartley, among them a baby corsage of pink carnations. Donors were Kettler Knolls neighbors of the honoree.

Another lovely party given to honor Mrs. Hartley was a luncheon and shower Friday at the Los Angeles home of Mrs. E. C. Johnson.

WBA Meeting Scheduled For Tuesday

W.B.A. Review 37 will meet in regular session at 7:30 Tuesday evening, February 7 in the home of Mrs. Anna Sandstrom, 2322 Eldorado avenue.

A full attendance is requested by Mrs. Anna Stadig, recently installed president.

ATTEND COUNCIL MEETING

Mrs. Samuel Dow, president of 186th Street PTA, accompanied by Mrs. James Gauley and Mrs. Leo Wagner, Newsette chairman, attended the Gardena-Wilmington Council meeting, Friday at Dominguez School.

Mrs. Samuel Dow and Mrs. J. A. DeJaffre, health chairman, attended the Health Conference at the Red Cross Headquarters, Los Angeles, Monday.

Stork Shower Compliments Young Matron

Complimenting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth A. Perkin, Mrs. Thomas H. Packin entertained recently in her Martina avenue home with an attractively arranged stork shower.

Shower games occupied the guests with Misses Stephen Ball, James Casey, Clyde Anderson, and Clifford Trezise as prize winners. Attractively packaged gifts were presented in a pretty bachelorette and later refreshments were served from a buffet table lovely with pink and blue sweet peas.

Attends Sister's Graduation

Mrs. James C. Donald, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Butler of Fullerton motored to San Diego Sunday to attend graduation exercises at Mercy College of Nursing.

Miss Patricia Butler, daughter of the Fullerton couple, and sister of Mrs. Donald, was among the graduates. Miss Butler is acquainted in Torrance where she has been a frequent guest at her sister's home.

LUTHERAN MEETING ADVANCED

Rebekah Circle of First Lutheran Church has changed its meeting time from the third Friday of the month to the first Friday.

The February meeting will be held tomorrow, Friday, February 3 at the home of Mrs. Lester Breitenfeldt of 17010 Atkinson, who, together with Mrs. Charles Mearning, will be hostess for this month.

Busy Month Scheduled By Lodge

Torrance Chapter 44, Women of the Moose, participated in the exemplification of the ritual at the district conference held Sunday in Long Beach.

The chapter, according to publicity chairman Cora Hill, will have a rather full schedule during February, the first event being last night's card party under the chairmanship of the ways and means committee. A daytime pot luck is scheduled for tomorrow, at the home of Martha Jones, membership chairman. Wednesday, February 8th, will be a regular business meeting.

Shoestring 'Clean-Up' Week Set

Home-making chairman Helen Armstrong has invited all co-workers to her home on Tuesday, February 21, for an all-day meeting in preparation of the bazaar which is planned for some time in April. Co-workers are asked to bring their lunches and the hostess will furnish coffee and dessert. Another scheduled meeting will be held on February 22.

Echo findings show that mud at the sea bottom is in some places 9,000 feet deep.
