

Strong Men Carry Away Strongbox

A heavy safe containing approximately $250 was carried out a window of the South-west Brick Company at 17799 Western avenue Monday night police reported.

They said several strong men would have been needed to carry away the large strongbox.

El Camino Registration Ends Feb. 17

February 17 will be the final day for registration in spring semester classes at El Camino College, according to H. J. Sheffield, director of student personnel. Early registration indicates that enrollment will approach last semester's high record of 3,842.

Hours for registration are from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 3 to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. The college is located at Crenshaw and Redondo Beach boulevards. Classes are tuition free.

Twenty-nine new courses are being offered at the college. Included are both vocational and academic subjects. Among the new business courses are evening classes in executive training, retail selling techniques, real estate, and insurance. Agriculture classes include evening courses in principles of landscaping and day courses in dairy cattle and milk production, poultry, and ornamental plant culture.

Technical and industrial courses being offered for the first time include industrial drafting, radio repair and maintenance, and refrigeration.

Light Pole Flames

An electric transformer on a light pole at the end of 235th street west of Pennsylvania avenue caused a small flurry in the neighborhood Monday when it blew up and made the pole a flaming torch, police reported. The fire was extinguished by the Southern California Edison Company.

Deadline Nears for Registration of Accountants

A special registration for veterans desiring licenses as public accountants will close March 15, when George E. Rumel, local investigator for the State Board of Accountancy, said this week.

All veterans who can meet state requirements for public accountancy by that date will be eligible, as will any non-veterans who, on September 15, 1945, met the requirements.

School's Out Early, Kids

Hey Kids! School ends on June 10! You may think that's a long way off, but it's a full week earlier than Los Angeles schools will adjourn.

Yep, there's a sticker. Schools will also convene here a week earlier, too—September 11.

The early dates were selected to shorten the period between Easter and summer vacations.

ON FIRST BROADCAST

Ezio Pinzo, star of the fabulous stage hit, "South Pacific," will be heard in his first radio drama, Sunday, February 12, when United States Steel's full-hour program, "Theater Guild on the Air," presents the celebrated singer with Madeleine Carroll and Linda Darnell in "Goodbye Again," via stations of the National Broadcasting Company network at 5:30 p.m. (PST).

FARMING COUNTRY

Two-thirds of Elie's three million people are farmers.

New Walleria Residence Unit

Site work is starting on the first of four new units totaling 297 homes in the Pacific Hills "Homes of Tomorrow" development in Walleria.

According to Developer K. Sande Senness, the construction of 44 two and three bedroom homes in Unit No. 3 is getting under way slightly behind schedule due to recent rains.

The first two units in the tract on Pacific Coast highway between Hawthorne and Crenshaw boulevards have already been completed and sold, Senness stated.

Construction of Unit No. 4 is scheduled to start March 1 with Unit No. 5 following on April 15 and Unit No. 6 on June 1.

48 More Houses Slated For Kettler Knolls

Kettler Knolls, Inc. has taken out building permits totaling $240,000 for 48 more two-bedroom houses in their tract in the southeast corner of Torrance, making a total of almost 500 homes built here by the company since 1946.

The houses, which will follow the conventional architectural lines of the previous homes built will have new features of electric garbage disposal units and redwood fences. All will have attached garages. The present group of houses will be built on 235th and 236th streets, Schilling Court and Falena avenue.

The houses, valued at $5,000 each in the city building office, will be finished sometime in May and will probably sell for about $7,000 each, company officials said.

Other building permits issued included:

A $20,000 four-family apartment house at 136-138 Hollywood Palms Verdes parkway, built by the owners, Ted Brandon, 1605 Sepulveda avenue, Manhattan Beach.

A $15,000 three family apartment house with separate $1000 garage and laundry room at 303 Calle Miramar, built by the owner, Robert A. Brown, 6658 Whitley Torrance.

Vincent Thomas Seeks Return To Assembly

Assemblyman Vincent Thomas will run for reelection in the June 6 primary as representative in the state legislature for the 68th assembly district which includes Torrance.

Now serving his fifth term, Thomas stands seventh, with four others in seniority in the assembly. He is a member of committees on government efficiency, revenue and tax, transportation and commerce, and fish and game. He is also a member of the interstate cooperation commission.

First in the district to announce his candidacy, Thomas received an endorsement before he made his announcement. It came from John Calise, business agent for the AFL, Seine and Line Fisherman's Union.
