Customers' Corner

What do you consider good service in a food store? Do you get it at your A&P?

Of course, we expect all our employees to be friendly and courteous. But we think good service goes beyond that. We train our employees to be prompt, efficient, helpful and accurate as well.

To us, good service means quality food offered at low prices in clean, well-stocked and well-operated stores.

Any time your A&P doesn't measure up to these yardsticks of good service, please let us know about it. Write: Customer Relations Department, A&P Food Stores, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Seaside Ranchos

By Mrs. Evelyn Hyder

Invitations for the first Court of Awards sponsored by Girl Scout Troop 1055 have been mailed to many civic minded residents of the community. The ceremony, to be held at 7:30 tomorrow, Friday evening, in Seaside Elementary School, is in recognition of the badge work accomplished by the girls since the troop's inception in June, 1948.

Refreshments will be served, according to Mrs. Evelyn Hyder, leader; and Mrs. Lois Greenwood, co-leader.

Our showmen here in S. R. are excited to say the least. Two recent ones were given while the wings of the stock were heard flapping overhead.

Last Wednesday evening, Winnie Mewborn had a shower for Pat Durnight. The bird waited patiently while Pat opened her many lovely gifts, sampled the delicious and beautiful ice cream cake then drove to St. Mary's Hospital in Long Beach where her boy, Stephen Alex was born at 4:00 a.m.

If you haven't already guessed the subject of our jingle, you will, after reading today's clue. Read the jingle as a whole. If the clues fit the person you pick, write out your reasons, place in an envelope and give to your block captain with 25 cents. The envelope will be dated and the winner announced at the Homeowners' meeting this evening. Get your answers in immediately, as the one with the earliest time and correct clues will win.

First I had two, now I have one, There's a clue in a song, also in gun, With a cook and a deacon, a bright colored fly, The rumors go merrily rolling by, For the light raising fund, I had a hand, But neither did nor made a slam.

(New Clue)
I've got lots of patience and plenty of time, But I lost the pot with three of a kind, Hurry right to your block captain with your entry. Don't forget your quarter. Our aim is to have at least one entry per home.

Paul and Margaret Roetger climaxed the visit of Margaret's mother, Mrs. C. C. Crum, by returning with her to her home in Las Vegas, leaving Friday and returning Sunday.

The Homeowners' association meeting tonight should prove interesting what with our Jingle winner being announced, Emmet Ingram, business manager of Torrance schools, will speak on the coming school bond election and refreshments will be served.

The meetings will now be held in the school Cafeteria the third Thursday of each month.

Seaside Elementary PTA meeting held recently was quite impressive. The meeting was opened by dedicating a tree to be purchased by the PTA as a symbol of their first Founders Day program.

A nominating committee was set up including Mrs. Frank Lincoff as chairman, Mrs. Morrison Hornbeck, Mrs. Fred Ronquet, Mrs. Paul Barth, and Mrs. Ted Gaul.

Mrs. Barbara Mabin was pianist for the occasion.

The entertaining part of the program was the Fashion Review of clothing worn from the year 1897 (the year the PTA was founded) to the year 1950. The narrator was Margaret Roetger. Pearl Patrosky and Eleanor Murray representing the two founders, were seated at a table watching the progress of the organization as the years rolled by.

Starting the parade of fashions were Helen Schmitz and Linetta Bowman, appearing in the garb of the late 1800's featuring leg o'mutton sleeves, nipped-in waist, etc. Drawing calls of "Oh You Kid" and "23 Siddy" was a bathing beauty of the early 1900's portrayed by Virginia Knouse, complete with long black hose and knee length bathing suit.

Elsa Beckman showed what a Milady wore when driving in 1908.

A party dress of the same period was worn by Doty Hagle.

When mamma went calling in 1911 she wore an outfit similar to what Ruth Hanover wore. Her daughter Linda crossed the stage holding her hand in a child's dress of the same period.

The year 1914 was represented by Joyce Roquet, Dolman sleeves and all.

Peg Powell in high black laced shoes and large hat typified the year 1918.

Jrene Berman wore a tailored suit of the period around 1921. Helen and Claude Farrell (a man, how did he get in here?)

CAMELLIA SHOW SET

Hundreds of varieties of camellias will be displayed February 18 and 19 at the Camellia Show in Brookside Park, Pasadena. There will be thousands of blooms from which to select favorites for the garden.

For the first time lovely blooms will be offered for sale by Red Cross volunteers and of course, the money collected will go to Red Cross.

There will be educational exhibits at the show where such things as culture, seeds, slips and grafts will be shown. Also, the visitor will see the various effects of light, PH, heat, and feeding.

Many persons admire the beautiful camellia blooms, and comment, "My, I would like that in my garden"—yet, few realize how easy it is to grow them.

A few pointers in planting are essential, such as the size of the hole, drainage, and general location, for best results; but any nurseryman can give these simple instructions in a few minutes.

How such a gorgeous bloom can be produced with practically no work is remarkable. They require very little spraying for few insects ever attack them. Mildew, fungus, wilt, etc., are almost unknown. Pruning requires no skill of her than to shape and even picking flowers helps in the pruning.

Fertilizing helps, but many inexpensive types are available and easily applied and only required a few times a year. As for watering, it is wise to keep them damp. As far as frost is concerned, the plants will stand as low as 10 degrees and do not have to be covered.

Den Mothers Plan Events

Several activities were planned Monday evening by members of the Cub Scout Den Mothers and committee of Lomita Pack 218C who met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Westfall, 962 W. 25th street, Harbor City.

A kite-flying contest will be held March 12 on the hill at the south end of Eshelman avenue. Plans to hold a doughnut sale soon were discussed.

Three Den Mothers who have been active in the Pack during the past three years, Mrs. Kurt Shery, Mrs. Carl Westfall and Mrs. O. R. Balcom, were honored with gifts upon leaving the Cub program to go into Boy Scout work.

The serving of refreshments climaxed an enjoyable evening. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. John Merbach, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Schmidt, Mrs. John Zell, Mrs. G. Bushnell, F. Abbott, Mrs. M. Tregarten and the hosts.

Guests From Oregon Feted

Arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Colvin of Grants Pass, Ore., was the incentive for hospitality by Mr. and Mrs. A. Spaan of 1609 W. 252nd street.

Guests invited for the evening were former members of a Mothers Club organized 15 years ago and their husbands. After an enjoyable evening, Mrs. Spaan served delicious refreshments to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frye of Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hall of South Gate; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hufford, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Gertrude Schreiber, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Lewis of Lomita; Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Halling, Harbor City; and Mr. and Mrs. C. Shoemaker of Torrance.

Catholic Card Party

Mrs. Regina Allred will serve as chairman for this evening's Altar Society-sponsored weekly card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be procured at the door.

Canasta has been added to the list of popular games offered. Mrs. Allred asked that foursores for this game supply their own cards.

While tallies are being added at the close of play Mrs. Allred and her committee will serve delicious refreshments.

Assisting with party arrangements are Mesdames Otis Putman, J. J. MacDonald, T. T. Babbit, J. L. Dunmyer, M. N. Felker, John Melville, Albert Martin, Albert Stevens, Samuel Webb, H. Rushfaldt, Donald M. Pennington, L. J. Merola, Johnson and Louis Lisoni.

Sharon's a Teenager Now

Sharon, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Felker, celebrated her birthday with a Valentine dinner party in her Beech avenue home.

The evening affair was a hilarious occasion for the teenager. Sharon called James Shidder, Robert Hyder and yours truly. Approximately 40 were present. The evening was spent painting the furniture for the nursery class room. Later, color movies of the Rose Parade were shown and refreshments were served. This club is open to any married couples. Anyone interested may call James Shidder at FR 51939. He and Lynn have been instrumental in starting this club and many entertaining evenings are in store for its members.

MRS. SAINE IS ADVISOR TO Y-TEENS

Mrs. Thomas Saine of 1503 Acacia avenue, was welcomed as new advisor of the eighth grade Y-Teens Wednesday during a meeting of the group at the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Saine replaces Miss Joyce Franzen as advisor.
