

WOMAN'S CLUB SLATES RUMMAGE, OTHER PLANS

Plans have been completed by Mrs. Earl A. Miles and her committee for a two-day rummage sale to be held tomorrow and Saturday in the former Torrance Herald building, 1336 El Prado.

Mrs. Miles urges cooperation from every club member to assure the success of this way and means project.

Reservations are being taken until Saturday, February 11, for the club-sponsored tour of a Los Angeles bakery, set for Wednesday, February 15. A chartered bus will leave the clubhouse at 11:30 and luncheon will be served soon after its arrival at the bakery. Everyone is invited. A charge of $1.25 will cover luncheon and transportation costs. For more information, call Mrs. J. N. Burton.

With March 15 set as the date for the annual carnival, the various committee chairmen are busy with plans.

Donations are needed for the booths and for the linen chest, a project begun last year which is to be repeated.

OES Grand Officer Official Visit Tonight

Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star will mark the official visit of Martha Robertson, Deputy Grand Matron of the 72nd District, tonight in Masonic Temple. Chairman of arrangements for the occasion is Hazel Fossum.

Torrance Chapter officers were hosts to other officers in the district when they observed Courtesy Night Thursday evening in the temple.

All stations were filled by courtesy officers from Gardeña, Inglewood, Triangle, Hawthorne, and Westchester chapters. After presenting Worthy Matron Gladys Mothersell and Worthy Patron Frederick Cook, Worthy Matron Olive Dull of Westchester Chapter U.D. and Worthy Patron Harry Vickers of Inglewood presided. Their associates were Associate Matron Carmelita Kellogg of Triangle Chapter, Venice, who was courtesy officer for Vivian Cook and Associate Patron Cecil Mathis of Hawthorne, courtesy officer for Gordon Mothersell.

Two deputy grand matrons, Martha Robertson of the 72nd District, and Dolores Melkjohn of the 73rd District were escorted and presented.

MOTHERS PLAN FASHION SHOW

Among Springtime activities being planned, by the newly installed executive board of Nativty Mothers Club is a fashion show to be held on Friday afternoon, March 24.

A dessert service will precede the show and other entertainment will be provided for members and guests, according to Mrs. Thomas H. Herrin, treasurer of the board, and general chairman for this ways and means project.

Pandora Club Hears Talks On History

During the Waleria Pandora Club meeting held Thursday night, members were enlightened with several educational features.

Mrs. Joe Vaverka and Mrs. T. M. Kirk were hostesses for the meeting in the Waleria Recreation Hall.

Mrs. George Powell, vice president, presented a lesson on parliamentary law; Mrs. Frankie Stevens, historian, gave a short talk on "Read and Its Relation to History;" and Mrs. J. J. Snow, secretary, gave a resume of the history concerning State flags.

Plans were outlined for a fall bazaar and each member was asked to take an apron to the next meeting as a starter for the Pandora Bazaar Box.

The yellow rose was selected as the club flower and orchid and gold for the official colors. Mrs. Snow volunteered to make club program booklets for each member. Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Carl Coombs of Waleria and Mrs. Robert Sleeth Jr. of Torrance.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Vaverka invited the guests to find their places at the gaily-decorated tables which were placed in the formation of a "T" with the centerpiece representing the "tree of life." Streamers from the tree to each place were carried through a birthday ring to a horseshoe, birthstone, and flower in honor of each individual.

"The Old and the New" was the title of a poem read by Mrs. Dale Wands, and Mrs. Paul Pendleton read a poem, "New Year's Thoughts."

Following the serving of refreshments the club members departed with the memory of a delightful meeting held in a very desirable place for this growing club.

Honor Won By Miss Iida

Miss Marguerite Iida, daughter of Mr. Zenzo Iida, 18357 Crenshaw boulevard, recently received the bronze pin of Phi Gamma Kappa, honor scholar, ship, fraternity, at Woodbury College, Los Angeles.

Miss Iida is majoring in higher accountancy at Woodbury.

Old Clothing Drive Slated by PTA

Mrs. Mavis Cook, chairman of a Torrance Elementary PTA-sponsored clothing drive, asks parents of the school pupils and other interested persons to assist with this worthy project so that less fortunate children and their families may receive much needed aid.

Donations of clothing, which should be clean and ready for immediate distribution, may be left at the school or Mrs. Cook will receive a call at 2338, or Lomita 10043, to pick it up.

Canasta Play Highlights Card Party

Canasta play will highlight the Catholic Altar Society-sponsored weekly card party tonight in Nativity hall, 604 at Manuel avenue. Everyone is welcome. Tallies may be procured at the door.

Mrs. Frank Marcoux, hostess chairman, asks canasta four-somes to supply their own cards. Assisting Mrs. Marcoux with party arrangements are Mesdames Elizabeth Russie, C. E. A. Foster Kelly, Ross Copion, Ed Spiller, E. Marks, A. Snyder, Robert Kastrup, Joseph Ruben, Lillian Powers, Robert Wertz, M. Duehring, and Don Miller. At the close of the play, while tallies are being added, delicious refreshments will be served.

Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president of the Halldale PTA, announced that the bake sale held recently was a complete success and expressed appreciation and thanks to all members of Halldale PTA for their cooperation and help in the sale.

Townsendites

Townsend Club members will attend a weekly meeting tomorrow evening in Woman's clubhouse. Everyone is invited to attend these weekly affairs, according to James Sellers, president.

Bunco players will enjoy a brief session beginning at 7:30 and music for old time and modern dancing will start at 8:15.
