Burkholder Rites Held
 Services were conducted last Saturday by James Van Osten, a member of the Christian Science Church, for Virginia H. Burkholder, 67, of 716 Calle de Arboles, who died at the Bay Shore Rest Home in Hermosa Beach March 1. Cremation followed at Pacific Crest Cemetery.
 She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Virginia Bennett, and a granddaughter, Theresa Bennett, of Torrance; and two sisters, Nora H. Taylor, of Pasadena, and Martha Hill, of Medford, Oregon.

Band Jamboree To Be Held Here In May
 One of the feature events of the Torrance Area Youth Band's "Fourth Anniversary Band Benefit Drive", will be a parade to be staged in Torrance Saturday afternoon, May 20. Several hundred invitations have been mailed out to bands, baton corps, and riders all over Southern California. Many of them have been returned as official entries.
 This parade will mark the first appearance in Torrance of the California Centennials float.
 Two new events which have been added to the list of events for this year's drive include all "All Southern California Baton Twirling Contest," scheduled for the morning of May 20 and the first public appearance of the Torrance Community Adult Concert Band. This band has just been organized by the Torrance Area Youth Band and will give a concert on Thursday night, May 4.
 Other events scheduled for the drive include a Junior-Intermediate Band Concert April 19, an Amateur Talent Contest May 24, and the Band's Fourth Anniversary Concert June 2. All events except the parade and baton contest will be held in the Torrance Civic Auditorium and are free to the public. The parade will be routed through the downtown business section of Torrance and the baton contest will be held on the El Pado Parkway. The drive will begin March 28 and end June 2.

Consciousness Returning to Blacksmith
 A. W. "Oley" Johnson, 69-year-old blacksmith of 1753 Arlington avenue, was still in a serious condition in Torrance Memorial Hospital yesterday, hovering between coma and consciousness, eight days after a piece of metal he was hammering bounced and cracked his skull.
 Dr. Rodney Stetson of the Torrance Medical Center, his attending physician, said Johnson was in a coma four days suffering the skull fracture and a brain bruise. He said Johnson is still somewhat paralyzed, but is beginning to recognize persons and is able to take liquid nourishment.
 Johnson suffered the blow while at work at the National Supply Company.

Masonic Rites Held Here for Thomas Potts
 Final rites were conducted last Friday at the Stone and Myers Mortuary by the South Gate Masonic Lodge for Thomas E. Potts, 4200 Redondo Beach boulevard, who died at his home February 28. Cremation followed at Pacific Crest Cemetery.
 He is survived by his wife, Ann, of Torrance; two sons, John, of New York, and Joe, of Manhattan Beach; a daughter, Mrs. Florence Newton, of Bakersfield; and a brother, Norman Potts, of Alhambra.
