OES Chapter 380 Hosts Torrance Bethel No. 50

Accepting the invitation of the worthy matron, Gladys Mottersell, Pat Clere, honored queen of Torrance Bethel 50 Order of Job's Daughters, and her corps of officers exemplified the opening and closing ceremonies of the Bethel, Thursday evening in Torrance Masonic Temple. A large attendance of Eastern Star members, including ten past matrons and several visitors from other jurisdictions witnessed the ceremonies.

The worthy matron and worthy patron, Frederick Cook, welcomed Edna Babeock, past matron of Torrance Chapter and guardian of Bethel 50, William Bremner, associate guardian, the honored queen and her officers and after the exemplification complimented the girls on the proficiency of their work.

Mrs. Ruby Clere, the queen's mother, was present. She being junior past guardian of the Bethel, the queen presented to her in a very gracious manner, the official insignia of that honor.

At the conclusion of the regular meeting of the chapter, refreshments were served in the banquet room, by the members of Job's Daughters Council composed of Edna Babeock, Ethel Bremner, Rolive Eever, Kathleen Ritko, Charlotte Robinson, Mesdames Howard McDonald and Rodgers, Frank Krokow was the expert coffee maker.

ILL AT HOME

Mrs. B. F. Dye of 1607 Cota avenue has been ill for the past several weeks.

DeMolay Circle Meetings

DeMolay Mothers Circle met recently at the Gramercy avenue home of Mrs. Paul Findley with Mrs. R. S. Daugherty as co-hostess.

Delegates to the grand council meeting to be held Saturday at Whittier are to be Mesdames Homer S. Morgan, R. S. Swigart, R. S. Daugherty and Frank Paour.

Welcome Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Joyce (Doris Amitage) of 2109 Chestnut avenue, Manhattan Beach, have announced the birth of a daughter, Sharon Lynne, born February 18 in Torrance Memorial Hospital.

HALLDALE PTA PLANS PROGRAM FOR MARCH

Many activities for March were outlined by the president, Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, at the Friday morning board meeting of the Halldale PTA.

The rummage sale planned by the PTA has been changed to a clothing and salvage drive. Shop-pings bags will be sent home with the students to collect the donations. Any clothing that is usable will be cleaned and repaired by a salvage company, and given through the PTA to needy families in the community. The date for the drive will be announced later.

A doughnut drive is planned to take place during the Easter vacation, and the PTA also is sponsoring the sale of "T" shirts, bearing the school's name. Anyone interested in the purchase of a shirt may contact Mrs. E. M. Bernardin.

Mrs. Robert Lentan, program chairman, outlined the program for the PTA meeting March 9, 1:30 p.m., at the Halldale School. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Elsie Russell, whose subject will be "Health." The program also will include a skit entitled "The Cowardly Clown" under the direction of Mrs. John Blackmon and Mrs. M. D. Hiebert, and songs presented by the students from Mrs. Wilma Claar's room.

Arbor Day

Two flowering peach trees were planted on the Harbor City school grounds on Arbor Day, Tuesday, California Conservation Week, March 5 to 11 was also observed in the various school classrooms throughout the week with national resources used as the subject of study.

On Monday the children were privileged to see a small animal exhibit brought to the school by the Los Angeles City Schools.

Club Honors Presidents on Eighth Anniversary

Torrance Junior Woman's Club honored their past presidents at their eighth anniversary party Wednesday, February 22, in the clubhouse when Senior club members and husbands of both groups were guests.

Red and white carnations were used as a centerpiece for the lovely tea table where cherry pie and coffee were served by the past presidents.

Entertainment was provided by the "Crown City-Four," barber shop quartet, co-original champions of 1949.

The past presidents were introduced and presented with red and white corsages by Mrs. W. C. Boswell, Jr., who read high lights from each of the officer's terms of office. Attending were Meses, Ralph Ruggaff, J. Park Montague, Earl Clayton and H. L. Wagner.

Mrs. H. P. Jensen, president, was the recipient of a president's pin.

Jones Baby Home from Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Jones of 2307 W. 239th street, Torrance, are enjoying their first child, a son, born at the Torrance Memorial Hospital February 25.

The little boy, who weighed 8 pounds 2 ounces at birth, has been named Stanley Roland Jones in honor of both grandfathers.

Mrs. Jones and her son are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stanton at 2469 Moon avenue, for a few weeks.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jones of 2311 W. 239th street, Torrance.
