For Council

Brief appraisal of Charter

end "Yes" vote or four following Charter Amendments:

- Fair remuneration for Councilmen.
- 2. Good business to have de-partment heads and City Manager approve pay-ments before they are made.
- 13. Establishes procedure
- Adds jurisdiction of civil matters to our city court.

the following Charter Amendments:

Waives present residence requirements of civil service, and leaves door oper for employing technica employees from anywhere without defining what is technical.

- Eliminates present oath of office and establishes con-troversial one.
- 5. Establishes an agenda for council to use as excuse not to hear petitioners, and places time prior com-munication must be re-ceived before being consid-ered at council meeting.
- Repeats that city council do by ordinance what it already is empowered to do by city charter.
- Provides for a change of ordinances by reenactment as amended without repeal.
- City Council may enact ordinance while under pressure, then let it die by authorizing City Clerk not to publish same.
- Authorizès City Council to license "lawful games." It opens door to gambling.
- Grants City Council right to give away franchises intermediate up to 25 years on any public util-ity. Here could go our bus franchise without neces-sity of buying our buses.
- Authorizés City Attorney to hire permanent deputy without City Council ap-proval and authorizes a salary "commensurate" to duties assigned.
- Attempts to limit claims against city to a shorter period than allowed by state law.

Proposition to Sell Buses

asks electorate to authorize the Council to sell buses of heir own terms. Let's keet hem, improve them and expand their service. I recommend vote "No."
