

Kettler Kapers

By LEONA and AL WIDMIELL

HI NEIGHBORS! You will notice a new "by-line" on this column, for Jimmy Cole has passed the ball to us to carry on, since he is quite busy with many activities. He will continue to give much of his time to the Torrance Knolls Civic Organization, however, as he has been elected-director on the Board for Tract No. Two. Just how far we will carry the ball depends on you. We will have to pass it to someone else unless we receive your help. If you have any news of social or public interest, phone us at Lomita 2161-W. Leona will do the news gathering and Al will do the writing—but we need teamwork to put the ball over for a touchdown.

THE GENERAL MEETING of the Torrance Knolls Civic Organization held Wednesday, March 15 at Torrance City Hall, discussed several pertinent problems relating to the improvement of Kettler Knolls. It was decided that the complaint committee will call at all homes to receive your complaints, and also to collect $1.00 dues needed to carry on the good work of the organization. Recent accomplishments have been the street lights, street signs, center white lines, 25-mile speed limit signs and bus transportation. Only 64 persons attended this interesting meeting. Watch this column for announcement of future meetings so we can build up the attendance to give everyone a voice in organization affairs.

MOTHERS WITH CHILDREN in dancing school are warned against attempting to keep up with their "small fry." Mrs. Josie Jarvis, 23228 Falena avenue, was showing her neighbor, Mrs. Charles Jonas, 23229 Huber avenue, just how her 3-year-old daughter, Boneta, has learned to "flit the light fantastic toe" when at the climax of her backyard dance she turned and sprained her ankle. Josie was more amazed than amused! She reports that her ankle is mending rapidly, but it may be some time before she can demonstrate the second lesson.

A BABY SHOWER was given for Mrs. Hershell Huffman by Mrs. George Witz at the latter's home, 23106 Huber avenue. Mrs. Barbara Froom and Mrs. Doris Ridenour assisted the hostess with the refreshments consisting of cake, cookies, ice cream and coffee. Many lovely gifts were received by Mrs. Huffman. Winners during the afternoon games were Mesdames Betty Clancy, Barbara Lyons, Adel Walls and Alice Carlson.

Others attending were Mesdames Shirley Moraine, Barbara Jackson, Nadine Johnson, Wanda Andrus, Margaret Kelly, Betty Graybehl, Alberta Gresham, June Grubbs and J. E. Huffman.

WRITERS REPORT PROGRESS

The proper preparation of manuscripts and the value of an agent's service to the beginner, were subjects discussed Tuesday evening, March 14, when the San Pedro Writers' Guild met in the teachers room of the Leland Street school.

During the business session Allan Ramsay reported the sale of a filler to Western Family magazine. Photographs and an article on camping by Harold Monroe were reported sold to Science and Mechanics. Cleo Cooper reported the acceptance of an article.

Dorothy Brown Wood opened the program—with a poem dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Porter who leave shortly on a trip to Ireland.

That the ideals of David Livingstone could annul the ills of today's world was implied in Cleo Cooper's poem "David Livingstone." Mabel Cory found a cure for those same ills in a nature allegory titled "Glory of the Land."

Two quatrains, "Sir" and "Import" were Beatrice Newhard's contributions to the evening's program.

In her article "Back Door," Flora Lester factiously lambasts her findings that there are only two classes of writers, the swimming pool owner and the garret abider.

"Hello," a humorous monologue by Edna Giles, records one end of a telephone conversation. Mrs. Giles also contributed "My Stillborn," a verse take-off on writers at work.

Mrs. Marty Frank was the guild's guest during the meeting.

Shower Fetes Harbor City Bride-Elect

A bridal shower, honoring Miss Patricia Tibbets of 24803 Senator avenue, Harbor City, who will become the bride of Grant Stuckney in June, was held Thursday evening.

The home of Mrs. Sidney Farquhar at 24301 Allene avenue was the setting for the party, and assisting her was Mrs. Gladys Stuckney.

A television show, sociability, and the opening of the many gifts by Miss Tibbets all preceded the serving of delicious refreshments of sandwiches, salads, coffee, candy and nuts.

Attending were Estelle Hilliard, Dorothy Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hallen, Eleanor Farquhar, Betty Floyd and Simone Stuckney, all of Lomita; Mary Tibbets, Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson and son of Harbor City; Mrs. Keith West of Wilmington; Sidney Farquhar and the hostesses.

Red Cross Campaign Results Surpass '49 Figures to Date

"Full steam ahead" was flashed to neighborhood Red Cross doorbell-ringers this week from campaign headquarters as progress reports indicated that in Torrance, 33 per cent of the assigned goal has been subscribed.

Local campaign leaders reported that more individual residential subscriptions have been pledged and larger personal donations have been collected than last year at this time.

"This healthy trend is a sure sign," volunteer workers said, "that individual citizens have taken to heart our campaign slogan—'For every dollar you gave before, this year add a quarter more!'"

"We must reach every home in this community, because each gift, large or small, insures continuance of the blood service program.

Women who make men talk better than they are accustomed to are always popular, even when they are plain.—E. V. Lucas disaster relief, health and home nursing instruction, first aid, assistance with veterans' claims, and a multitude of good works that contribute to the nation's health and strength," local volunteer fund leaders asserted.

If workers in the field continue with their determined efforts, and individual donors and business firms subscribe their donations now, there will be no need for prolonging the campaign beyond schedule, campaign chiefs predicted.
