WSCS SETS MAY DAY BREAKFAST

Circle 3 of Torrance Methodist WSCS is sponsoring a May Day breakfast Monday, May 1 at the church. A charge of 50 cents will be made for the delicious breakfast to be served from 9:30 until 11:30.

Mrs. Annie Olsen, as chairman of arrangements, will welcome members and friends of the church.

Bethel 50 Activities

Planned by Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, at a meeting was a bake sale for Saturday at the entrance to Levy Department Store. Girls are asked to have their donations at the store at 9:30.

Bethel members were asked to save papers for next month's drive.

Sponsored by the Mothers Club, a progressive dinner has been scheduled for May 19. Tickets at 50 cents may be purchased from Marieta Houston, of Lomita, and Ann Olson, Torrance.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Edna Babeock of the official visit of the Supreme Grand Guardian. The supreme officer will arrive in Long Beach in August for her reception, she stated.

Officers and choir members of Gardena Bethel 137 will be courtesy officers for Torrance Bethel's May 2 meeting. During the evening the Torrance girls will sign up for officers for next term.

Birthdays of Martha Dunn and Dora Ritko were noted during the social hour.

Ann Bishop, treasurer, and Ann Olson, recorder, served as courtesy officers Monday evening at Gardena Bethel.

Lindsays Welcome Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lindsay of 17110 South Crenshaw boulevard are being congratulated upon the birth of their second child, Diane Beth, at Methodist Hospital April 17.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Newton, who arrived from Odell, Texas, for the event, and Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Truschell of Los Angeles.

Robert, 2, was on hand to welcome mother and the new baby from the hospital. The children's father is employed with Northrup Aviation.

FORMER RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Day and Stanley, 8, of San Leandro, and formerly of Torrance, spent the weekend as guests of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham. They also visited with Mr. Day's mother, Mrs. Henry Day, of Date avenue.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE HARRISON HARTLAND

Hartland-Smythe Vows Are Recited in Chapel

At home at 1617 Arlington avenue following their recent wedding in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, are George Harrison Hartland, of Los Angeles, and his bride, the former Miss Elizabeth Lynn Smythe, daughter of Mrs. Esther B. Smythe of 2224-A Cabrillo avenue.

Given in marriage by R. E. Battershill, the bride was lovely in an ankle-length dress of rose beige lace with matching accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of blush pink camellias and hyacinths. Mrs. C. R. Widrig, as matron of honor, wore blue crepe with navy accessories and her flowers were pink carnations and hyacinths.

Ushers were S. E. Beadle and C. R. Widrig.

Arriving for the ceremony were the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hartland of Everett, Wash.

Following a reception at the chapel, at which Mrs. W. S. Hillier presided over the guest book, the couple left for a honeymoon at Laguna Beach.

Mrs. Hartland was graduated from Torrance High School and attended El Camino College. Her husband received his diploma from Queen Anne High School, Seattle, and attended University of California. He served in the U. S. Navy Air Corps and is employed with Seaboard Engineering Company, Los Angeles.

DIVERSIFIED AFFAIRS HIGHLIGHT YWCA WEEK

Among program highlights of the 1950 observance of National YWCA Week within the San Pedro Area YWCA this week was a Nationalities Tea yesterday attended by a number of Torrance association members.

The tea refreshments featured delicacies from the Pan-American countries, Scotland, Scotland, Yugoslavia, the Scandinavian countries, Belgium, the Philippine Islands, Russia, Japan, Italy and Germany, as well as traditional American—all prepared by YWCA members.

Mrs. Alfred Jorgensen, Nationalities Interests Committee chairman, was in charge of activities, music, folk dancing and the presentation of a United Nations flag to the coordinating council completed the program.

Among those attending from Torrance were Mrs. Edith Inglish, W. F. Bartholomew, Cecil England, Earl Conner, Edward Pietzschke, Charlotte Lukes, M. L. Kent and Miss Esther Maxwell.

The YWCA Day service at the Torrance First Christian Church also was well attended Sunday by YWCA members, with Mrs. F. P. Foley and Miss Ruth Mahon later traveling to San Pedro to attend the conference benefit waffle breakfast staged by the Young Business Women's Association.

Still another feature of YWCA Week observances participated in by Torrance people was the Pasadena area conference last Friday in Pasadena. Attending were Mrs. Minnie B. Solomon, F. P. Foley, Tom E. Watson and Charlotte Lukes.

Miss Elizabeth Hawkins, San Pedro area staff member, was a featured speaker, talking on activities within the public affairs committees of local associations. Mrs. Earl Cranston discussed "The Challenge of Membership in a Christian Organization."

The trouble with some relatives is that they not only follow a couple up the aisle of the church, but into the new home.

BREAKFAST IS SERVED

Everyone is invited to the breakfast being served this morning from 7 o'clock until noon by members of Central Evangelical Guild, with the president, Mrs. Alice Speheger, as chairman.

All the hot coffee and home-made bran muffins are wishes, along with juice, delicious scrambled eggs, bacon, and jelly will be served by the church women.

A donation, which will be accepted from each person attending, will be allocated to the church general fund.

LUTHERAN

The May meeting of Women's Missionary Society of First Lutheran Church will be held Thursday evening, May 4 at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Frank Yetmar will come from Santa Ana as guest speaker.

Hostesses for this month are Mrs. Chris Dobrick, Mrs. Clyde Stewart and Mrs. Floyd Lane.

The board will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Paul Wenske.

MISS NILA EIPPER

Nila Eipper Engaged to Jack Taylor

The engagement of Miss Nila Eipper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper Sr. of 25338 Pennsylvania Avenue and Jack Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor of 2063 W. 220th street, Torrance, was announced by the parents of the bride-elect this week.

Miss Eipper, who was graduated from Narbonne High School with the winter class of 1948, is employed in the office of the Kelley Car Company in Los Angeles and Mr. Taylor, a graduate of Torrance High School the same year, is a Columbia Steel Corporation employe.

The happy couple have not announced their wedding date.
