

Kettler Kapers

By LEONA and AL WIMMELL

HI, NEIGHBORS! May Day has come and gone. Over here was the signal for the start of many springtime activities, such as making May baskets filled with flowers and dancing around the Maypole in May festivals. Remember when you used to hang a May basket on the front door of your best friend? Some of you may have varied that somewhat by attaching a string to the basket and jerking it back, just as your friend reached for it—all in good fun, of course. Yes, over here May Day is a time for fun, flowers, and festivities, but not so over in Moscow where the troops march in Red Square, not so in Berlin where rival May Day rallies of 500,000 were held in the same city divided between East and West. Police broke up some stone throwing, but they may not always be able to break up fighting in the atomic age. What goes on in Berlin affects us all as we found out in 1939. But we must get back to Kettler-Knolls a much more pleasant subject to write about.

MARK GRUBBS, son of Dr. and Mrs. William Grubbs, 23229 Paloma avenue, entertained 13 guests at his fourth birthday party last Saturday at Torrance Park. A barbecue luncheon consisting of hot dogs, Kool-Aid, toasted marshmallows and an ice cream cake, cleverly decorated with candles, delighted all the youngsters. The children attending were Donald Bell, Clyde Ostler, Jr., Kenny Holmes, Ginny Lee and Jay Withycombe. Kenny Joe and Larry Helphand, Bonetta Jarvis, Gary, Pamela and Roger Blakey, Johnnie S. Trout and David Grubbs. Mrs. Grubbs was assisted by her mother Edith Radcliffe, Mrs. Jerry Withycombe and Mrs. Joe Helphand.

VACATION TRIPS will be quite popular soon with the combination of ideal spring weather and the usual spring fever. Among those preferring a spring vacation are Mr. and Mrs. Norwin W. Buehe, 1734 West 235th street, who returned recently from an eight-day trip to Sequoia, Yosemite, Sacramento, Feather River Canyon, Eureka, and then back down the Redwood Highway to San Francisco and the Coast Route home to Kettler Knolls. They report that they had a wonderful time, saw lots of deer in the parks, but were most impressed by the many falls in Yosemite. In fact, Ruth dragged Norwin half way up to Yosemite Falls before they realized distances can be deceiving in the mountains. Now they are back at work making their lawn and garden the most attractive in the tract.

avenue, was given Wednesday evening, April 26, at the Wilmington Telephone office, 408 Avalon, by the office girls. The room was decorated appropriately for the shower, and Mrs. Jesmer, a former telephone operator, received many lovely presents from the 25 guests. Ice cream, cake and coffee were enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Jesmer, who moved into their home three days after Christmas last year, celebrated their third wedding anniversary last Sunday having several dinner guests.

WE WISH TO WELCOME Mr. and Mrs. John Moorhouse and children, Judy, who is 7, Clark, 5, and Jackie, 3, to Kettler Knolls. They moved Monday, April 24, from Gardena to their new home at 22963 Walnut avenue. Mr. Moorhouse is theatre manager of the Vermont Drive-In Theatre at Vermont and 182nd street.

FORMER RESIDENTS, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Franz and daughter, Judy, who moved from 1820 Middlebrook road some three weeks ago, have written to Mrs. Dille Rhoads, 22945 Walnut avenue, saying that they have bought a home apiece in Sedona, Arizona. Mrs. Rhoads is quite happy that her old friends are so well settled.

MRS. BERNICE HOWLAND, 23223 Paloma avenue, entertained several neighborhood ladies for a 1 o'clock luncheon last Wednesday. Canasta was played during the afternoon with prizes going to Mrs. Kay Van Dalsen and Mrs. Vivian Wise.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS' WEEK drew many parents to the schools to find out what their youngsters have been up to lately. Torrance Elementary School held open house. Kindergarten students at Fern Avenue Elementary School appealed to the vanity of their dads to get a large attendance by drawing pictures of their fathers for exhibition. It reminds me of the story of the little girl who attended the first day of school and insisted that her name was "Snub Nosed Mary." The teacher contended that she must have another name and finally ordered her to go home and ask her mother. Stubbornly, the little girl walked down the aisle, then turned to a little boy and said: "Come on, 'Cabbage Head Joe,' she won't believe you, either."

LAST WEEK we mentioned that you neighbors may be on the spot; this week you are! We need your cooperation, so call Lomita 2161-W and give us some news for this column.

A bevy of school girls, dressed with individual uniformity.

There's only one pretty child in the world, and every mother has it!—CHINESE PROVERB.
