Pre-Nuptial Shower Compliments Miss Arcq

Portuguese Bend Clubhouse was the setting for a beautifully appointed luncheon and shower given Saturday afternoon to honor Miss Geraldine Arcq, popular June bride-elect. Hostesses for the delightful affair were Mrs. William J. Campbell (Dolores Uibright) and Miss Ann Marie Bishop. A pink and white color scheme, followed for floral decorations and place cards, suggested the bridal shower motif. Covers were placed for the honoree, and her mother, Mrs. Gaston Arcq; and Mesdames Howard Bowers, Edith Degner, R. F. Bishop, H. F. Uibright, John E. Miller, Byron J. Scotton, Betty Vandegriff, and the Misses Elizabeth Hutchings, Betty Hawks, Dolores Murphy, Evelyn Spain, Beverly Jean Lister, all of Torrance; Elizabeth Robinson, Cheval Hills; Joan Arnold, and Carol Arnold, both of Inglewood. Gifts were sent by the following guests who were unable to attend: Mrs. Richard Miller, Frank H. Steinhilber, and Steven Spain, Torrance; Lawrence Gezelus, Jr., Lona Beach; William Ralls, and Vern Arnold, Inglewood; and the Misses Sadie Hawks, and Claudette Fritz, Torrance; and Jean Larson, Gardena.

BEVERLY LUSTER NAMED JOB'S DAUGHTER QUEEN

Elected Tuesday evening to serve Torrance Bethel 50 as honoree queen during the ensuing six months was Beverly Luster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Luster of 1915 Greenway boulevard and her staff:

Dorita Wolf, senior princess; Marian McDonald, junior princess; Ann Olson, marshal; and Mary Ann Denton, guide. Elective and appointive officers will be installed in sessions in Masonic Temple Saturday evening, June 17.

Torrance Bethel recently was honored by officers and members of Gardena Bethel 112 at a Courtesy Night observance at the Temple.

Opening and closing ceremonies were exemplified by the Gardena Bethel, under direction of its honored queen, Ruth Wolford. The Gardena guardian and associate guardian were given Bethel honors as were the Torrance guardians, Mrs. Edna Babcock and William Bremer.

The occasion was marked by the visit of two grand Bethel officers of the State of California, Mary Williams of Gardena, grand Bethel librarian, and Beverly Luster of Torrance, grand Bethel treasurer. Both were presented and given Bethel honors.
