

ON STAGE . . . Inspector Paul Williams questions the members of the cast in El Camino College's Theater Arts Club's presentation of J. B. Priestley's dramatic hit, "An Inspector Calls." The show will be staged June 2 and 3 in the college gymnasium. Standing, left to right are Williams of Los Angeles, Andy Ward of Redondo Beach, Lari Cooper of Redondo, Carroll Hylton of Torrance and Morna Gahlberg of Inglewood. Seated are Dorothy Jakeman of Inglewood and Jim Haggard of Redondo Beach.

Torrance Girl In Cast of El Camino Play

Carroll Hylton of Torrance is among the cast of "An Inspector Calls" by J. B. Priestley which will be presented June 2 and 3 as the first annual three-act play to be put on by the Theater Arts Club of El Camino College.

Both performances, to be presented in the gymnasium, are open to the public. Tickets are now on sale at the College. Curtain time will be 8:30 p.m. The play, a psychological drama, was first produced on Broadway and starred Thomas Mitchell in the title role. The story deals with the inspector's attempt to show the Birlings, the family about whom the story revolves, that each is partially responsible for the suicide of a young working girl. Cast in the title role is Paul Williams of Los Angeles, who is also director. The rest of the cast consists of Jim Haggard of Redondo Beach, Dorothy Jakeman of Inglewood, Andy Ward of Redondo, Lari Cooper also of Redondo, and Morna Gahlbeck of Inglewood.
