MISS DORIS SHAKLEE IS BRIDAL SHOWER HONOREE

One of the loveliest parties of the week was a pre-nuptial shower given Tuesday to honor Miss Doris Shaklee, who is to become the June bride of Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools in Torrance.

Setting for the delightful evening party was the Hollywood Riviera home of Mrs. Gertrude Powell.

Following the presentation of beautiful and useful gifts, refreshments were served at a table lovely with silver and white appointments. A tiered arrangement of all-white flowers centered the dining table and formed the base for an exquisite bridal couple figurine, which later was presented to the honor guest. Individual servings of ice cream cake were topped with simulated orange blossoms to accent the bridal shower theme used for place cards and favors.

Guests were twelve of Miss Shaklee's intimate friends, many of whom have been her associates in school work.

Haselwood-Fowler Nuptials Are Recited in Church Rite

Miss Doris Fowler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fowler of 23203 Narbonne avenue, became the bride of Lawrence Haselwood in an impressive evening ceremony performed Saturday in Central Evangelical United Brethren Church. Rev. U. S. Schauer, pastor, officiated in the presence of 65 wedding guests.

Lovely in a gray suit with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rosebuds, the bride was attended by Miss Mary Tappin, who was attired in beige with white accessories.

Robert Fowler was the bridegroom's best man, Alfred Haselwood, brother of the groom, and Russell Fowler of South Gate, uncle of the bride, were ushers.

A reception in Guild Hall immediately followed the church ceremony.

The bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Haselwood of Keystone, attended Torrance High School and now is employed with Malleable Fittings Company. Mrs. Haselwood is a senior at Torrance High School.

Mrs. Fowler attended her daughter's wedding in a navy blue costume with white accents and a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother chose a green suit with contrasting accessories.

The young couple will be at home at 716 Anapola avenue.

Benefit Breakfast Enjoyable

Mrs. Ruth Deems, Mrs. Anna May Isbell, and Mrs. Ona Pence shared hostess honors when they entertained Thursday morning at a breakfast at the Deems home, 2064 W. 220th street.

Guests were members of Trio Rebekah and their friends, and proceeds from the benefit affair will swell the lodge treasury.

ART CRAFT CLUB NEWS

Mrs. C. E. Ward and her daughter, Mrs. G. J. Derouin, were gracious hostesses to the Art Craft Club Friday evening when they entertained at the Beech avenue home.

A new project, creating old oaken bucket planters, occupied the group following the brief business session conducted by the president, Mrs. J. E. Miller.

Army Man Takes Miss Oriani as Bride in Las Vegas Rite

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oriani of 1565 W. 222nd street have announced the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Vivian, to Mr. Harold Hansen, United States Army. The ceremony was performed in a Las Vegas, Nevada wedding chapel with the bride's brother, James Oriani, of the home address, as a witness.

The couple returned to establish their home in Lomita.

The bride chose as her wedding attire, a pink silk afternoon dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of roses.

Her husband is a corporal stationed at Fort MacArthur.
