Women's Activities Miss Farquhar Says Vows With William Elmer Moon

Approximately 200 friends of Jeannette Farquhar and William Elmer Moon gathered in First Baptist Church Saturday evening to hear them recite their nuptial vows. Rev. C. Miles Northrup officiated at the impressive ceremony.

The lovely brunette bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Radford H. Farquhar of 2103 Carson street, was given away by her father. Her bridegroom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer S. Moon of 1024 1/2 Amalpa avenue.

White satin was chosen by the bride for her exquisite gown, which was designed with a bertha collar, the bustle skirt flowing into a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was draped from a pearl-headed tiara and she carried a white orchid corsage on a white Bible.

Miss Jean Shoddy of Compton, as maid of honor, wore pink satin and net, and the bridesmaid, Mrs. Robert Carrow, (Nelle Hocott) wore a similar gown of yellow satin and net. Sweetheart hats of net complemented their gowns. Their flowers were ribbon-tied arrangements of blue delphinium and carnations chosen to harmonize with their costumes. Sharon Foster, little niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in yellow satin with a hairpiece of baby rosebuds.

Dan Moon attended his brother as best man and ushers were Albert Smith and William George of Torrance, and the bridegroom's fraternity brothers Jack Campbell of Pasadena and Al Wiggins of Los Angeles.

Preceding the ceremony Howard Gilliam of Gardena accompanied by the church organist sang "Because," "Still as the Night" and "The Lord's Prayer."

GARDEN RECEPTION
A reception followed in the garden of the bride's parents' home, where a tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Howard Foster, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. R. P. Hocott, Mrs. C. M. Severin and Mrs. O. E. Gwynn.

Mrs. Farquhar received her guests in an afternoon gown of rose crepe, white accessories and orchids, and Mrs. Moon attended her son's wedding in blue crepe with gray and pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Later the couple flew to San Francisco for their honeymoon and will return to establish their home at 2103 Carson street. The bride was graduated from Torrance High School and Compton College, where she majored in psychology and now is employed at Torrance National Bank in a secretarial capacity. Her husband, who also received his diploma from Torrance High School, is in his senior year at University of Southern California, where he is a Tau Kappa Epsilon. He is a social science major.

Among the out-of-town guests was the bridegroom's 86-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Moon, of Whittier, who flew here from Pueblo, Colo. for the service.

Candlelight Ceremony Marks Jr. Woman's Club Installation

Mrs. Robert C. Morton, newly elected president of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, and her staff, were installed during a most attractively arranged dinner party last Wednesday evening in the clubhouse. Pink ivy geraniums in miniature wheelbarrows decorated the tables, set for 72 members and guests.

Mrs. Leland Hughes, district president of junior membership, in an impressive candlelight ceremony installed the following officers who will serve during 1950-51. They are:

Mrs. R. C. Morton, president; Mrs. Albert Posner, first vice president; Miss Maxine Hoyle, second vice president; Mrs. W. C. Boswell Jr., third vice president; Mrs. William Walsmith, recording secretary; Mrs. R. D.

Bolen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. E. Wallace, treasurer; Mrs. E. V. Winkelbauer, auditor; Mrs. H. P. Jensen, parliamentary; Mrs. H. R. Burkholder, reporter; Mrs. Merle Richardson, philanthropy director; Mrs. Earl Clayton, junior-senior director; Mrs. Regis C. Jones, federation coordinator; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, Mrs. J. E. Slavert, and Mrs. W. I. Laughon, advisors.

Mrs. H. P. Jensen, retiring president of the Junior Club, introduced the guests, who were:

Connie Navarro Becomes Bride of Kenneth Belles

In an impressive ceremony performed in Normandy Wedding Chapel, Long Beach, Miss Connie Navarro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Navarro of 1564 W. 219th street, became the bride of Kenneth R. Belles, of Torrance.

Mr. Belles, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Houdashelt of 3503 Torrance boulevard, received his diploma from Torrance High School and for the past five years has been associated with Star Furniture Co., recently becoming a partner in the firm. Miss Navarro was graduated from Torrance High School and for the past two years has been employed in the accounting department of Columbia Steel Company.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage. Her gown was a beautiful model of pale pink lace made with a fitted bodice and full skirt. A bolero top and Juliet pointed sleeves were details of her exquisite costume, with which she wore a frosted pink open-crown hat and white accessories. A single strand of pearls and matching earrings accented her ensemble, and she carried a bridal arrangement of white orchids.

Miss Juanita Navarro was her sister's maid of honor wearing blue taffeta with contrasting accessories and carrying yellow camellias and blue delphinium. Harold Belles attended his brother as best man.

"Always" sung by the chapel soloist, preceded the ceremony. A reception followed at the chapel, where a tiered wedding cake and punch were served to 50 relatives and friends of the couple.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Belles left for a motor trip to Yosemite National Park and Lake Tahoe. They will be at home after July 1 at 1537 W. 219th street.
