WHEREAS, on March 22, 1950, Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, the owner and holder of said deed and the debt secured thereby, applied to and directed said trustee in writing to execute the trust by said trust deed created, and to make sale pursuant thereto; and
WHEREAS, notice of such breach of the obligations of the trustor and of the beneficiary's election to cause to be sold the property below described, to satisfy said obligations has been recorded as is provided for by law, and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation and the trustee deems it best to sell the real property now remaining sub-

'Finian's' Is Staged At Greek

The original Broadway principals and a nucleus from the New York dancing and singing ensemble of "Finian's Rainbow" began its two week playing schedule Monday evening at the Greek Theatre in Griffith Park, Los Angeles.
Ella Logan, David Wayne and Albert Sharpe carry the star roles in this whimsical and captivating tale about an Irishman and his daughter, who have come from far-off Glouca Mora to Rainbow Valley, an idyllic spot in the South, Mississippi.
"Finian's Rainbow" is booked for two weeks only at the Greek Theatre, "Rib Rita" will follow on July 31.

SMILIN' QM . . . That's Sgt. John F. Wait, 24260 Neece avenue, (center) who is on a two-week training period with the 11th Signal Company at Camp Pendleton. The smiling Marine quartermaster recently signed up for active-duty with the U. S. Marine Corps. The Signal Company is due to finish maneuvers this Saturday. Keeping a record of the equipment issued is Pvt. Daniel Daniel Kahn of Long Beach. Receiving the gear is Sgt. Daniel F. Wilcox. (U. S. Marine Corps photo).

Letters To The Editor

July 14, 1950
Editor Torrance Herald:
Before closing the census office in Torrance on Friday, July 14, I want to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to your newspaper for the cooperation you have given this office in publicizing the various phases of the census program. The publicity you have so graciously accorded us helped to foster the fine reception we have received from the public, and assisted in our obtaining excellent results in the 17th Congressional District.
Please accept the thanks of myself and the entire staff of the Torrance office, Bureau of the Census.
Very truly yours,
JAMES I. PIERCEALL
District Supervisor

Community Night Opens Lee Week

Monday evening's weekly community night program at Torrance Park will be dedicated to Joseph E. Lee, father of American playgrounds.
In connection with the Joseph E. Lee Week activities, the program will also feature movies and entertainment from the Hollywood Riviera-Seaside area.
Picnickers last week thoroughly enjoyed an outstanding performance by the Oleda Mann Dancing studio of Los Angeles. The troupe, which has been touring the Southern California area, presented a large number of professional acts.

Driving Class To View Traffic Safety Movie

"And Then There Were Four," a documentary film dealing with traffic safety, will be shown Monday at 10 a.m. in the Civic Auditorium in connection with the Recreation Department's ladies car driving classes.
An officer representing the traffic safety department of the Los Angeles police will show the half-hour film and follow with a short talk in connection with the film. The public is invited to attend the free classes.

Swimming Class To Begin at Beach Club Pool

Teen-age swimming and instruction takes the spotlight next week as the popular summer program activities increase. Each Monday and Wednesday throughout the balance of the summer, Torrance youths may avail themselves of the Hollywood Riviera pool, beach, and facilities under the direction of the local Recreation Department.

Ted Meier, popular youth leader, will give instruction at the beautiful pool from 9 to 12 a.m. Anyone 14 years old and up is eligible.
Although no special buses will be running to the pool, scheduled Torrance Municipal buses travel to Hollywood Riviera daily. The pool fees, which covers towel usage, is only 10c.
Further information concerning the all-day program may be obtained at the recreation department in the City Hall.
