Kettler Kapers

By VEGGIA JONES.
ANOTHER REMEMBER
 POLLS—The Home Owners Association meeting is next week Thursday night, July 27. Don't forget! At least one member of each family should be there, as they will be asked to make a vote.

THE COFFEY HOUSEHOLD
 at 1844 Reynosa drive is indeed a busy one these days. One particular weekend they had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. R. C. DeLong and son David of Ventura who were entertained with a canasta party Saturday night. Also sudden to this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Palmer of Kettler Knolls. Miss Francis Holtzman of Redondo Beach, Mr. Gordon Hudson of San Pedro and Dr. Joseph Palmer of Chollala. A delightful buffet dinner was served by the hostess.

The following morning while Mr. Coffey and Mr. DeLong were golfing, Mrs. Coffey held a luncheon for Mesdames DeLong, Kenneth Blundell and Edward Palmer. Canasta again was the diversion for the afternoon. Later on a birthday cake with candles was the delight of the youngsters. The honored guest was little Miss Donna Jean Blundell. Present were Mrs. Priscilla Palmer and Joy Coffey all joined in singing "Happy Birthday."

MRS. LEONA WIMMELL of 2304 Falema street returned last weekend from Blue Jay in the San Bernardino mountains where she spent a delightful week's vacation. Accompanying her was Mrs. Barbara Harbach of Hermosa Beach.

A LOVELY DINNER was given last Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and daughter Linda of 2047 Kathy way in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Osborne and children, Jo Ann and Dennis, from San Francisco. The Osbornes spent a week visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity and have now returned to the northern city.

FLYING HOME FROM SAUDI-ARABIA was the experience of Gabriel Symes last week after he completed five months of construction work with the Trans-Arabian Oil Line. He was greeted at the Los Angeles airport by his wife Louisa and three children, Danny, Linda and Charles. They are at home at 2051 Reynosa drive.

A FAMILY REUNION at Kelso, Wash. was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Jonsrud and children Tara and Jimmy of 1634 Middlebrook road. Approximately 125 relatives attended the affair, which is arranged every year by Mr. Jonsrud's parents. The Jonsruds also visited relatives in Portland and Albany, Ore.

MRS. WILMA BROWN of 2059 Reynosa drive entertained last Tuesday afternoon with a delightful bridge luncheon. Guests were Mesdames Agnes Harvey of Kettler Knolls, Charlene Fox and Pauline Crocker of Long Beach. Mrs. Harvey won high honors for the day.

MR. AND MRS. C. G. LOCK of 1823 Santa Fe Avenue, had as their guests last week Mrs. Lock's sister, Mrs. Hazel Weller of Twin Falls, Idaho. Little Holly Lock accompanied her aunt back to Twin Falls and will spend the rest of her summer vacation there.

AN INFORMAL BIRTHDAY dinner was given by Mrs. Dorothy Wainwright of 2053 Reynosa drive in honor of her daughter Dennis who celebrated her ninth birthday. The birthday party was presided over with a special guest, Miss Jo Ann Osborne. Later in the evening relatives dropped in for ice cream and cake and brought lovely gifts for Dennis. They were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Squares of Long Beach and their grand daughter Betty Ellen from Honolulu. T. E. and Dennis' grandmother, Mrs. Mary East of Long Beach.

"OH MY OPERATION," can be sung by little Tommy Feary who is almost eight. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Feary, brought him home from the hospital last week and state that he's recuperating fast. Home is at 1811 Marinette street.

DUE TO ARRIVE MONDAY for a stay of ten days is Mrs. Ernest Scoville of Skidway, Mo., who is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Triplett of 2116, Halber avenue. On the 28th of this month they all plan to leave for Missouri as it will be the Triplett's vacation time.

THE MONTHLY MEETING of Circle 7, W.S.C.S. was held Tuesday night, July 11, at the Torrance Park with a pot luck dinner the center of attraction. Approximately 50 persons, comprising Kettler Knolls families, were present and a lovely time was had by all. Guests for the evening were the Rev. Clarence E. Miller and Mrs. Miller and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Schwab, all of Torrance.

A CAN STA PARTY was held in the home of Mrs. Jewel Holmes of 23217, Falema street last Wednesday night, July 12. Guests included Mesdames Betty Morehead, Iris Dunbar, Jo Devenish, Helen Bell and Bernice Howland. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The first proof of a man's incapacity for anything is his endeavoring to fix the stigma of failure upon others.—B. R. Hayden.
