Change of zone on property lying within the Avaion-Sepulveda and Harbor City zoned districts and adjacent area was approved at a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors, with instructions to county counsel to prepare the proper ordinance. Specifically, the land is bounded by Dennis street and its west-crly prolongation on the north; Main street on the east, Sepulveda boulevard on the south and Figueroa street on the west.

Supervisor Raymond V. Darby, who presented the metion, reported that the change is from M-3 (unclassified), M-2 (industrial), and A-1 (light agricultural) with requirements of 10,000 square feet for building, to R-1 which is single family residence, for all property included in the revised map of tentative tract No. 16886. This property lies northerly of a line parallel with and approximately 1350 feet north of Sepulveda boulevard.

A change of zone from A.1.

10.000 feet requirements, to A.1,
6000 feet requirements, was approved for the balance of the property within the area, Darby said.

Pistol Club Seeks New Range Site

Fears that rifle range smack-dab in the middle of a residential district might tend to fray the nerves of near by dwellers has moved the Torrance Police Pistol club to seek a new site for its range.

Police Pistol club to seek a new site for its range.
Located now near the city's water tower near the intersection of Torrance and Crenshaw boulevards, the range will soon be all but engulfed by the large Torrance Gardens tract now being developed there, according to Police Sgt. A. S. Thompson, president of the club.
Members of the club, which has been organized for more than 20 years, are hoping to be able to build a new clubhouse on a new range site in the near future, Sgt. Thompson reports.

Centennial Caravan May Visit City

An offer to bring the California Centennial Commission Historical Caravan to Torrance hasbeen extended by Lloyd D. Mitchell, Southern California manager of the commission.

The offer, received by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, did not set the exact date the caravan would appear here.

Blaine Walker, executive secretary of the local chamber, wrote-mitchell that the chamber would ocverything to make the visit to Torrance "most welcome."

Convertible Flips Over, Three Riders Uninjured

Three men barely missed injuries Sunday evening when their 1935 Ford convertible turned over on Western avenue at 236th street.

Joe Aldrich, 21, of 21825 S. Main street, told Torrance police that ne changed lanes sudainly to get out of the way of fast-moving automobile approaching from the rear. In changing lanes, Aldrich said he lost control of the car and it run onto the shoulder and curned over.

Riding with Aldrich were Robert Such, 2219 Andreo and Ernest Fovel of 2440 West 229th street. None was injured.

Chamber Draws Up New Maps of Growing City

New, up-to-date maps of Tor-rance, showin all the latest sub-divisions and new streets have been prepared by the Chamber of Commerce and are now in the hands of the printers, ac-cording to Blaine Walker, exe-cutive secretary of the chamber. There will be 10,000 of the new maps printed, Walker said, and a wide-distribution is planned. The maps will replace the ones issued about two years ago.
