Arriving at the 2343rd AF Reserve Training center in Portland, Ore., this week, S/Sgt. Forrest E. Hunt Jr., who lives at 25860 Ward street, began a tour of active duty with the Air Force.

Sgt. Hunt was recalled for active duty last week. His wife, Mary, and three sons, Forrest III, David and Donald are living at the Ward street address. Bated a small arms instructor, Hunt first entered the military service at Ft. MacArthur in January, 1943. He was released three years later.

A native of Colorado, he was a clerk with General Motors before being called back into the military service.

Del Dodson Assumes Management Of Firestone Store This Week

Taking over management of the Firestone Store here Monday morning was 28-year-old D. W. Dodson, who succeeds Al Wright. Wright has been transferred to Firestone's Fresno store.

Dodson, who is married and has a 10-year-old son, came to Torrance from the Riverside store, where he was a commercial salesman.

A native of Harrisburg, Pa., he attended Gettysburg College before entering the Air Force during World War II. Called "Del" by his friends, Dodson said this week that he will move to Torrance as soon as he finds a place to live. Meanwhile Wright, who has been with the Torrance store here since last year, is taking a vacation before assuming management of the large store in Fresno. Wright has been with Firestone for about eight years, he said.

A member of the Kiwanis Club here, Wright lived at 609 Pine avenue.
