PTAs Sponsor Noted Speaker's Appearance Here

Endorsed by nearly all of the groups before whom he has lectured, Loyd V. Prante, noted author, philosopher, and humorist will address a public meeting Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Torrance High School Auditorium.

His appearance here is sponsored jointly by the Torrance Elementary and Torrance High School PTAs.

Both groups have postponed the regular business sessions in favor of Prante's lecture. Prante, principle of John Adams Junior High School, will speak on, "I'm Just A Family Man."

The Torrance High School PTA will hold a Pot Luck dinner before the meeting.

Mrs. John L. Stephens, and Robert Genter, of the High School and Elementary PTAs are program chairmen.

Meeting Set For Red Cross

The Torrance branch of the American Red Cross will meet at 1 p.m. tomorrow at the Citizens of Commerce office. It was announced this week by Mrs. R. F. Bishop, chairman.

In announcing tomorrow's meeting, Mrs. Bishop relayed an announcement from the Los Angeles Field Director to the effect that a class in first aid will open October 18 at the Harbor General Hospital. It will run from 8:30 until 9:30 p.m.

Instruction in first aid will be given by Dr. Iva Haines. Persons interested may call Arthur Boyce at Torrance 2881, Ext. 381, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily. Mrs. Bishop said.

Man Injured Slightly In Spill from Auto

Sliddng around a turn at Torrance boulevard and Maple avenue last Thursday morning, Robert H. Holland of Manhattan Beach, fell from his car and sustaining minor injuries, according to the Torrance Police department.

George W. Post Gets New Bank Appointment

Directors of the Torrance National Bank Tuesday this week elected George W. Post to the dual post of assistant secretary and assistant cashier. The announcement was made by James W. Post, bank president and father of the newly elected officer.

George W. Post, who resides with his wife at 2217 West Carson street, was born in Torrance and received his elementary education in Torrance schools. He graduated from Torrance High school prior to entering the U.S. Air Force, in which he served for three years during World War II with a long list of successful missions in the European theatre of operations. Upon his discharge from the Air Force, Post attended Loyola University, graduating two years ago in business administration.

Roy Sandgren Wounded On Korean Battlefield

Word that their son had been wounded in action in Korea was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sandgren of 20603 Oak avenue.

Wounded was Pfc. Roy C. Sandgren. He was attached to the 27th Infantry.

Before entering the service, Sandgren was employed at the American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corporation.

Realtors Join Fight Against Public Housing

Both financial and moral support of the passage of Proposition No. 10 has been pledged by members of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board.

The action backing the action against public housing in areas without the consent or vote of the people in the area was made at a regular meeting of the group last Friday night in the Torrance City Hall.

Other action taken by the board included the acceptance of reports from Perry Connett on the financial status of the group, and a report from Paul Vonderahe on the advanced real estate course now being offered at El Camino College.

Accepted also was the application of Theodore Semmes, realtor in Walteria and brother of K. Sande Semmes, developer of Pacific Hills, for membership in the organization.

T. S. Lovelady's Father Buried

Funeral services for General S. Lovelady, father of Thomas S. Lovelady of the Lovelady Hardware Company, were held Tuesday morning in Pomona, with Rev. John L. Taylor, pastor of the La Verne Methodist Church, officiating.

Mr. Lovelady was born March 3, 1863, in Clay county, Missouri, and died Saturday morning.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. May Caldwell of Wyoming, and four sons, Marcus C. Lovelady of Redondo Beach, Thomas S. Lovelady of Torrance, Elmer H. Lovelady of Long Beach, and Willis S. Lovelady of Iowa. There are also 28 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery, La Verne.

Movie of Post War China to Be Shown

"My Name Is Han," a motion picture about life in post-war China, is being shown next Sunday evening at 8 p.m. at the First Christian Church. The occasion is "guest night" for the Fellowship Forum. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend.

CAPITOLS BURNED
Missouri's state capitol buildings were destroyed by fire in 1837 and 1911.

Listing Service Offered Through Classified Ads

Beginning this week a new service will be available to both home seekers and home sellers.

In arrangement with the Torrance-Lomita Multiple Listing Board, the Torrance Herald will publish various homes, business opportunities, and land for sale under a special Multiple Listing section in the classified ads.

Although the ads will appear over the name of one of the 94 realtors comprising the membership of the Multiple Listing Board, the property may be purchased from any realtor who is a member.

During the first three quarters of this year, the cooperating realtors handled sales amounting to $509,908, according to a report made to the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board last Friday evening, by Gerald L. Alter, head of the Alter Realty Company.

Alter is secretary of the Multiple Listing Committee, which is headed by Harry Bowker of Lomita.
