Brownie Mothers Tell Plans

Mrs. Mildred Dudley and Mrs. Marguerite Williams were hostesses recently to the Mothers Club of Brownie Troop 435.

Plans were discussed for the Juliette Lowe Ingathering held on Saturday in Peck's Park. Leader of the troop is Mrs. Betty Hunter, and her assistant is Mrs. Williams.

Family Party Marks Three Birth Dates

The Andro avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hutcherson was the setting for an enjoyable family reunion last Sunday evening when Mrs. Hutcherson entertained honoring the birthdays of her husband, their daughter, Jean, 7, and her mother, Mrs. Earl A. Miles.

'Summer and Smoke' Opens at Biltmore

Tennessee Williams' play "Summer and Smoke," starring Dorothy McGuire and John Ireland with Una Merkel featured opened at the Biltmore Theatre Monday night.

Tennessee Williams' last vehicle here, "Streetcar Named Desire," played to sellout business at the Biltmore. Engagement of this Actors' Company production is limited to one week only.

Perry PTA Represented

Representing Perry School PTA at the Torrance Council meeting held Wednesday at the Episcopal Church were Mesdames W. A. Wright, president; A. B. Cowie, Kenneth Hall, E. Collier, C. L. Thompson, and E. Russell.

MRS. GEORGE WALKER NEILL

Former Torrancite Claims Bride in San Marino Rite

Autumn flowers filled St. Edmund's Episcopal Church, San Marino, when Patricia Jean Eggleston was wed to George Walker Neill. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Huber Eggleston of that city and he the son of George W. Neill of Pasadena and formerly of Torrance.

The bride's beautiful auburn hair was contrasted by her gown of white satin fashioned in princess lines. A white satin bonnet held her fingertip veil and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Barbara Joan Eggleston was her sister's maid of honor. She was preceded down the aisle by Gloria Norcross and Marilyn Hall. Serving the bridegroom were Robert Worcester, best man; Thomas Haynes, Phillip Worcester, Gus Cochrane and Gerald Malone. The Rev. Charles A. Shreve officiated.

The newlyweds will be at home in Ardena late next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Eggleston were hosts at their home for the ensuing reception. The bride's mother received in an aqua lace and chiffon gown with dusty rose accessories and a rose corsage.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Adams of Escondido and formerly of Torrance; their daughter, Miss Jane Adams of Berkeley; Mrs. Mina Shidler and Mr. and Mrs. James Shidler of Torrance.

The new Mrs. Neill is a graduate of South Pasadena-San Marino High School and both she and Mr. Neill are graduates of the University of California. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. Mr. Neill is metropolitan page editor of The Star News.

Miss Joan Woods, niece of Dr. and Mrs. Howard A. Woods, with whom she had been living, has enrolled in Mexico City College.

Miss Wood plans to transfer to a school in the states next year. Meanwhile, she is the house guest of a family friend, Mrs. Joseph Friedman of Laguna Beach, who is making her temporary home in Mexico.
