Garden Club To Sponsor Yule Lighting Contest

Homeowners in the Torrance area were this week urged to start thinking about Christmas outdoor lighting decorations.

Mrs. Melba Hartley, president of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club. announced that the club would again this year sponsor a contest for the best decorated home in the Torrance area. Prizes will be awarded for the best theme and for the most outstanding set of decorations.

Those wishing to have their homes judged for the contest are asked to phone Mrs. Hartley at 323-J or Mrs. Mabel-Smith, 270-R before December 20. Awarding prizes will be made on Christmas Eve.

SLIGHT INCREASE NOTED IN JOB SEEKERS HERE

Slight increases in the number of persons now seeking employment through the Department of Employment offices here was reported last Friday by Milss Winona Ellis, manager of the Torrance branch.

A ready explanation was offered by the manager, however. "The seeming increase in some telassifications is due to several things such as re-entry into the labor market of housewives and older workers," she said.

"Also, we have noted considerable shifting of workers from job to job in an effort to utilize higher skills and gain greater income."

Total number of persons now weeking employment of the parameter of the persons of the person

Total number of persons now registered for work is 435 as compared to 416 at this time last month.

Paradoxically, Miss Ellis indicates that her staff is finding it "increasingly difficult to supply fully qualified workers to fill existing job openings" in this area. This is because many of those now registering quite larvae.

Jr. Statesmen Attend Confab

At least 18 members of the Junior Statesmen of America attended the state convention of the organization in Long Beach last Friday and Saturday, according to Edward A. Reynolds, teachersponsor of the Torrance chapter.

sponsor of the Torrance chapter.

The local group sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce assisted the Long Beach Woodrow Wilson High School in putting on the convention, according to Reynolds.

Besides delegates of the 90 chapters of JSA in Californie, representatives of 36 bt her youth groups were invited to attend the meeting. More than 300 attended.

The Torrance chapter plans to sponsor the next regional convention here in February. The region includes 20 schools in the Southern California area.

The local statesmen attended business sessions Friday and Saturday afternoon in the Long Beach Civic Auditorium and an evening on the Pike on Friday. Saturday the delegates stiender the Governor's Ball in the Lag fayette Hotel, at which ex-Governor Frank Merriam was the speaker.

Accordionettes to Help Open Santa Claus Lane

On hand to help with the open-ing of Santa Claus Lane in Hol-lywood tomorrow night will be the Accordionettes, according to their director. Betty Thomas. The musical group will partici-pate in the official welcoming of Santa along with many of film-dom's notables.
