Several Hundred Torrance Kids To See Pro Grid Game Sunday

Several hundred young football enthusiasts will see the pros in action Sunday afternoon when Torrance service clubs, civic groups, and individuals take the youngsters to see the Rams meet the Green Bay Packers in the Coliseum.

Approximately 300 young grid hopefuls who have been participating in the city-wide touch football program will be taken in cars to see the game.

At the same time, about 120 Children of the Moose, TAPS, and Boy Scouts will be taken to the game on buses leaving Moose Hall at 11:45 a.m. Sunday.

Sunday's game will be the last home game for the Rams, who were leading the league before their defeat last Sunday at the hands of the Chicago Bears.

Caminoville Rejoices as First League Tilt Comes to Campus

By REID BUNDY

Playing in what could have been called "The Oven Bowl" game last Thanksgiving Day, the El Camino Warriors led with their Sunday punch and kayoed the East Los Angeles Junior College Huskies 14-7 to gain the Metropolitan Conference championship for 1950.

Quarterback Paul Held was the "Man of the Hour" after he had scored one touchdown and passed to Avery Smith for another to wrap up the conference decider, and enhance El Camino's chances of receiving a bid to a post-season bowl game.

After two quarters of rock-sock-sock football, the Warriors led the Huskies 14-0 at half-time. East Los Angeles was used in the fourth period for a score, and threatened again just before the game was over, but the gun sounded with Fullback Dick Turner carrying the ball to the four-inch line for El Camino after the Huskies threat had been stopped.

NO LOOP LOSSES

Last Thursday's win gave the champions a season record of eight wins, one loss and a tie. In loop competition, their record stands at five wins and no losses.

In the opening period Ron Skirloff, playing fullback for the winning Warriors, recovered a Huskie fumble. Left half Don Miller ran 52 yards down the sideline before being forced out on the two. Held sneaked over for six, and Turner kicked the conversion.

HOOKS HOOKS PASS

In the second quarter, End Bob Hooks intercepted a Huskie pass to set up the second touchdown. Held passed to Smith for the last 36 yards. Turner's boot for the extra point was again perfect.

Midway in the final period Lewis Williams, fullback, plunged into the end zone from the 12 after the Huskies had marched 42 yards. Tom Zaby kicked the extra point.

Homecoming crowds which nearly filled the new El Camino stadium thrilled at the halftime parade of floats headed by the dazzling grid queen, Lillian Farmer. Floats from many of the college's organizations competed for the sweepstakes honor, which for the second year in a row was won by Phi Sigma Upsilon.

Card stunts in both rooting sections and entertainment by bands and drill teams of both schools added to the halftime entertainment.

Tartars Second In Bay League

Tartar cross-countrymen surprised Bay League dopsters last week at Recreation Park in Long Beach when the team, led by Duane Mittan, placed second behind Redondo for the league championship.

Paced by Mittan's third in the barrier trot behind two Redondos, Paskley-Rodriguez and Vincent Elquin, the Tartars ended up with 58 points for the meet. Redondo won with 30.

The dopsters were in for another surprise when Mira Costa, the new Manhattan Beach High School, nosed out Inglewood for the third-place spot. Inglewood was figured to give Redondo a hard run for the championship.

Redondo will enter the C.I.F. preliminaries in Recreation Park tomorrow. The finals will be held there next Friday.

Order of scoring last week: Redondo 30, Torrance 58, Mira Costa 93, Inglewood 107, Beverly Hills 108, Santa Monica 150, Leuzinger 169.

Santa Monica Trounces First Opponent in C.I.F. Elimination

Santa Monica, champs of the Bay League, will meet Loyola High, champs of the Catholic League, in the second round of the C.I.F. playoffs tomorrow night while the rest of the teams take a rest.

The Vikings get the chance against Loyola after downing a surprised South Pasadena team from the Foothill League 20 to 7 last Friday night in the Rose Bowl.

Tomorrow's game is the only one scheduled for the second round as the 10-team playoff requires one extra game after the opening round.

Other winners last week include Loyola over Santa Barbara, an independent, 21 to 20; Fullerton, of the Sunset League, over San Diego of the San Diego City League, 20 to 19; Redlands, of the Citrus Belt, over Pasadena, of the Pacific League, 13 to 7.

Last year's CIF champions, Compton, started back for their second title by downing Covina, of the San Gabriel Valley League, 37 to 27. Compton's Tom Ramsy scored five touchdowns for the Coast League champs.

The winner of the Santa Monica-Loyola tussle will meet Fullerton next week while Redlands is meeting Compton in the semifinals.

Warrior Casaba Coach Called For Naval Duty

El Camino's varsity hoop mentor turned his charges over to a couple of assistants last Friday and took off for a two-week vacation with pay in San Francisco.

It's not all as rosy as it sounds, though. Coach John Morrow, a member of the naval reserve, was called into active duty for a two-week training period at the Treasure Island Naval Base.

While he is wearing his Navy uniform, Amby Schindler, varsity grid coach, has taken over the basketball coaching chores.

Morrow expects to return a week from Saturday. There is a possibility that he will be called to duty permanently, but he said before leaving that he had received no definite word.

Amateurs to Have Try At Racing Next Sunday

Amateurs will be given their head at a special event on the Jalopy Derby program at Carrell's Sunday afternoon.

Anyone, 21 years old or older, may participate in the race, officials have announced. Track officials are expecting one of the season's wildest afternoons.
