Really seems good to see all the Christmas tree's pecking through front windows. It gives one kind of a warm feeling. To many of us. I'm sure, the memories of back home air erfershed, along with all that goes with Christmas . the crisp air and brilliant white snowdrifts, the big dinners at grandmar's, all the aunts, uncles, cousins and family around the tree, everyone sing around the piano while dear Aunt Anne plays "Silent Night." ing around the piano while dear Aunt Anne plays "Silent Night."
Yes, these are fond and dear memories, but now we are another generation. We are the ones that will establish the memories for our children and their children, so that some day they may look back and dream of "Grandma's" wonderful Christmas dinner and all the cheer and laughter of a wonderful family. Sont will make an early local stop this year at the Community. Christmas Tree, at the entrance to the Heights and Ranchos, Saturday night. All you kiddles who, want to put in your lastminute orders better get down there.

This is fiften cents per thousand dollars assessed valuation. Since industry pays 85 per cent of the bill, there would be left for us to pay only $1.258 or about two cents per person this tax year.

El Camino College collects by taxation from each home owner $8 for each $100 assessed valuation. Gentlemen, that is 400 times the amount. It would also be spent here in Torrance and not on the children of Los Asagoles, Gardena Redondo, Inglewood, and other coast towns.

Santa Claus in his busy routine just prior to Christmas found time to visit at Orange St. School Friday afternoon. After roaming through the halls while parties were in progress in the various classrooms he visited room after room greeting the children and wishing them a "Merry Christmas." Each room was decorated with a Christmas tree and children exchanged gifts. The faculty entertained their students and treated them to lee cream while room mothers furnished decorated cookies and cup cakes.
