Gaucha Bees, Dees in Wins

Narbonne's Bees won themselves a piece of the Greater Torrance-Lomita area cheese Tuesday afternoon by downing the Torrance Bees 35 to 30 in a razzle-dazzle ball game on the Torrance High School gym floor.

led by the scoring of S. Hansen, Romanioff, and Glezniez, the Narbonne Bees paced the Tartar-bees all the way. They led 19 to 16 at the half.

Try to Form League Here

At a joint meeting of the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation's baseball committee and the Southern California Baseball Managers' association executive board in Lynwood last week, a fruitless effort was made to organize a series of baseball leagues among Southland cities, according to Elmer S. Moon, Torrance's director of athletics.

Recreation officials in the area have voiced grave misgivings at the public disinterest generally shown in sandlot ball as it now operates under the thumb of the Managers' association.

Sgt. Swayne Johnson, of the Torrance Police Department, announced this week that he was giving up management of the Torrance Police baseball club which plays in Torrance Park each Sunday afternoon.
