Sports

Santa Monica, Inglewood, El Segundo, Beverly Win

While the Tartars were being subdued by a fast Santa Monica quiet last Friday night in the opening rounds of the Bay League basketball season, the Inglewood Sentinels had their hands full downing the Redondo Sealhaws at the beach city.

Mustangs Pick Up Tab For Debut in Bay League

Coach Ted Gossett's Miramar Mustangs made their Bay League debut last Friday night, and it was all at their expense. Meeting El Segundo Eagles in their first bona fide appearance in the league, the Mustangs dropped their wary game 25-36 and their bye game 26 to 36.

Protective Boxing Headgear Accepted

The protective boxing headgear introduced several years ago by Dr. Wm. Fernald, boxing coach at San Jose State, has recently been adopted by the District of Columbia Athletic Commission. The new headgear, which protects the boxer's eyes, ears, and the back of his head, had already been adopted by NCAA for collegiate bouts under its jurisdiction.

Ace Vaughn Leads Scratch Bowlers

At the end of the 16th week Ace Vaughn was leading the 870 Scratch bowlers at the Torrance Bowl with a 42-game average of 187. Trailing in the second spot was Bert Hester with a 24-game average of 182. Tied for the third spot with 189 were Ray Combs and Eli Meyer. Ray's average was posted after 48 games, Eli's after 23.

Whaling Fleet

In the late 1840's the American whaling fleet numbered 680 sailing vessels.

Adult Casaba League Battles Growing Hot

League play got under way again in the adult basketball leagues after a holiday lull, and the battles for league honors begin to shape up.

Leading in League I as of January 3, was the Club Gunza Div of Hawthorne. They were scheduled to meet Columbia Employees at the "Eagles" High School gym last night, and they should have had an easy victory.

The battle for the lead in League II is really a hot one. Two top teams, the Redondo Eagles and Banner Drugs, the latter a Lomita team, were battling up to last night with perfect records. They met last night for the first time in the outcome in today's Herald.

AC TEAM HOT

Another strong unit in League II is the South Bay Athletic Club who boast hope of the league spots in either league in the person of Martin Dietrich. In last week's game against the Torrance Merchants, Dietrich hit 27 of the team's 56 points.

Other consistently good scorers in the league include Ed Beck of Columbia Employees, Jerry Millwain of Fenwick's Shoe Repair, Ed Hansen of Torrance Merchants, and Chuck Schneider of Banner Drugs.

BATTLE DUE

A scoring battle should have developed last night between Schindler and John Kunkerson of the Redondo Eagles. Kunkerson is a consistently good pointer—he made 25 against the Marines last week.

Games now week at the Alondra gym see League I teams competing in the first round of play. Matches here include Fenwick's Shoe Repair vs. Robertson's Insurance, Club Gunza Div vs. Harbor Hospital, and Columbia Employees vs. Hawthorne Merchants.

Winding up the first round at the High School will be the Teachers vs. Redondo Eagles, Marines vs. Torrance Merchants.

Seahawks Pull Tartar Tussle Out of Fire for 45-37 Victory

Torrance Tartars received for their second loss in the nearly new Bay League basketball season, which got under way last Friday night when they dropped their classic cross-town battle to Redondo Beach Tuesday afternoon to the tune of 45-37.

Facing a slightly taller and well-trained quintet from the beach city on the Seahawk court, the Tartars battled right down to the final gun, but couldn't get the buckets necessary for a win.

Again the game was marked by the stellar defensive play of Tartar star Jim Taylor. Bill Barron, Jackie Coyne and Jack O'Call.

TRIO SCORE

In addition to stellar defense jobs turned in by Dando Bayron and Tony the two accounted for 21 of the Tartars' 37 points. Jackie Taylor finished with 10.

The Tartars warmed up near the end of the contest and pulled to within two buckets of the Sealhaws—at that time the score stood 33 to 37. The Hawks began hitting again and pulled on out to win the game by an 8-point margin.

SEALHAWKS WIN

In the preliminaries the Sealhaws did likewise to the Tartars—this time to the tune of 35-20.

Larry Roy was the hot man on the Tartars' Bay squad as he poured through 11 of the team's 20 points. It was Redondo all the way.

WARREN GRIDER NAMED TO J.C. ALL-AMERICAN

Bob Hooks, rugged Warriors end, was named to the third string 1950 J.C. All-American football team by the Williamson Football Ratings. Hooks' fine defensive play was a major factor in bringing El Camino its first Metropolitan Championship.

Ted Novikov, halfback from Los Angeles City College, was selected as Junior College Player of the Year.

Warriors Face Hot Weekend

Two of the top Metropolitan Conference teams and the Pepperdine Fresh will combine talents to give El Warrior an active week-end beginning tomorrow night and lasting thru Monday.

To start the affair, the Long Beach Vikings will come in tomorrow evening to tackle the Warrior basketball in a contest slated to begin at 8 p.m.

Boasting plenty of height in Comey, and both 6'6" and 6'8" (6'10" and 6'11" in some reports), the Vikings will look to Camminville with a very impressive list of wins in early season practice games.

For those Warriors who survive the San Diego Knights will show up on time for another 8 p.m. game Saturday. Knight Coach Don Clarkson has promised. Their center is only 6'2", 4 inches from reach to toe, but he handles it well, humor has it. He was leading scorer in the Metro league last year.

And, if the boys still want to play basketball, the Pepperdine Fresh will show up Monday afternoon in an effort to avenge their 65-71 defeat at the hands of the Warriors in an overtime game earlier in this season.

Hope for victories rests on the sharpshooting of Esidkimen Jim Cline and Bob Chambers, dubs and just golfers.

A 33 entry list covers present fees, and it is hoped a small profit for the YMCA.

Arrangements for the Alondra tourney were made through Gene Hollingsworth, manager of the Alondra course.

YMCA to Sponsor Blind Bogey Tourney Jan. 20

It'll be "all hands on deck" at the Alondra Park Golf course Saturday, Jan. 20, when the YMCA stages an open "Blind Bogey" tournament.

"Everybody can get in the act," according to Shorty Darrow, chairman of the Y's golf committee.

This will be a tournament on the regulation course, Darrow said. In addition to the tournament prize, the Y is offering prizes for the blind-headed men's low score, the youngest member's best score, the longest putt to a selected hole, the longest drive, and the longest putt drive over 150 yards.

Anyone can enter. The tournament is being put on for different classes, scratch players, dubs and just golfers.

A 33 entry list covers present fees, and it is hoped a small profit for the YMCA.
