

Kettler Kapers

There were many exciting events which happened in Kettler Knolls last week and the most recent was a tragic nature—the fire in the home of the Gordon Kimmetts of 234th street. Contributions of clothing, food and money are being collected by Mrs. Mary E. Strong, Mrs. Arthur Sura, Mrs. Lois Black, Mrs. Georgia Straub, Mrs. Fred Weiss, and many others.

MRS. JACKIE SHELHART honored her son Michael with a party on his first birthday! The setting was the family home, 23201 Falena avenue and a Hop-along Cassidy theme was used throughout. Little Mike had the time of his life and his small guests quickly consumed the homemade ice cream and cake! Included in the guest list were Linda Miller, Eileen Eagan of Torrance, Linda Gellatly, Bobby Lewis, Billy and Gordon Gasser, all of Lomita; Susan and Linda Noyes of Long Beach. In addition to the tiny guests were their mothers and Mike's grand mother, Mrs. O. E. Shelhart, his aunt, Mrs. Sally Gallaroto, the Misses Norma Gasser and Mary Ann Lang assisted Mrs. Shelhart with the party. As they had just departed a few days before for their home in Oakland, Michael's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haynes were unable to be on hand for the party.

IT'S ALWAYS FUN VACATION time—as in the case of Ruth Porter and daughter Christine of 1763 Santa Fe street. They enjoyed a weeks trip to San Francisco and San Jose last week visiting relatives. Ruth is employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company in San Pedro.

A LOVELY BABY SHOWER was given last Wednesday evening honoring Mrs. Elizabeth Roeder of Santa Fe avenue. The party centered at the home of Mrs. Louise Eisenbraut, 1760 Marinette street. An attractive scene was the beautiful floral centerpiece surrounded by pink and blue goodies on the table where the gifts were arranged. Games were played with prizes won by Mesdames Vena Johnson, Ruth Porter, Elizabeth Roeder and Helen Stepp. Other guests were Mesdames Marian Hubaker, Marian Wilson, Lucille Day, Loeta Chambell, Mildred Elliott, Ruth Vaughan, Edith Crawford, Carolyn Kessler. Unable to attend but sending a gift was Mrs. Barbara Marquard. Many beautiful gifts were received by Mrs. Roeder. Ice cream, jello and coffee were served by the hostess.

VISITING AT THE HOME OF Mrs. and Mrs. T. F. (Vene) Johnson and family of 2621 Martha street is Mrs. John Edsell of Sloom Springs, Arkansas. Mrs.

Walteria News Notes

Guest at the home of Myron Reeves, 4073 Bluff street, was Mrs. Mary Owt from Almena, Kansas. Mrs. Owt is a friend of long standing as the Reeves knew her when they lived in Almena.

The Fidels Club had their meeting on Tuesday, January 9, at the home of Mrs. Sage Madison street. Attending were Mrs. Mmes. Flint, Hahn, Crow, Conze, Palmer, now of Torrance, Harline, and Gechel. The evening was spent in a short business meeting and playing cards. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Barraclough spent the weekend at Lancelast and Palmdale. Mrs. Barraclough reported that the weather was very lovely, and the scenery very beautiful, altogether making an enjoyable trip.

The Pennys, of Hawthorne boulevard, and Mrs. John Graham, along with Dick Ferguson, attended the all-star football game at the Golden State, January 14. An enjoyable time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and their two sons, formerly of Las Cadenas, have left to find new property in or near Santa Rosa. The Walkers sold their property some time ago, and have been living with Mrs. Harline, Mrs. Walker's mother. They left Sunday, January 14.

Mrs. Carl Miller, Huntington Park, was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. Pendleton, Hawthorne boulevard.

Mrs. Laura Wray, and Mrs. Mollie Dowd left Thursday, January 11, for a short visit to the desert. Mrs. Dowd visited friends in Hinkley, where she formerly resided, while Mrs. Wray was there on business. The two returned home the fol-

Visit Of Iron Lung Girl Set

"The Girl in the Iron Lung" will visit Torrance in behalf of the 1951 March of Dimes this Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m., according to Mrs. Clara Conner, dimes chairman.

The girl and attendants will demonstrate for the public how the iron lung operates to save persons stricken with polio. The demonstration will be held on El Prado between Sartori and Cravens avenues.

Mrs. Conner arranged for the visit of the lung to help in the current campaign to raise $1,500,000 which will be needed to fight polio in Los Angeles County during 1951.

Division of the March of Dimes for Los Angeles County, at a dinner meeting of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's at Melton's restaurant in Long Beach.

MR. AND MRS. EARL CHANDLER of Falena avenue were hosts one evening recently to Earl's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Rich and son, Donnie of Stockton.

THE FIRST MEETING of the "Jokers", this year found them gathered at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Coleman, 1098 Middlebrook road, last Wednesday evening. Canasta was the diversion with Mrs. Betty Dickson winning first prize. Mrs. Edna Crosswhite won the booby prize. Mrs. Peggy Scoles was elected to the office of Secretary-Treasurer. Other members present were Mesdames Betty Dawson, Willie Areboud, Gerie Horner, Betty Bynum and Joan Friend. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the meeting.

IF YOU AREN'T BUSY on Tuesday nites and you like to sing, why not attend Harold Dunn's voice group? They meet over the gym—the high school's choir room—every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. It's a wonderful opportunity to study all types of music—Fred Waring arrangements, choral and popular music are on the list. They have appeared on two programs and plan to have music ready in the event of any programs coming up. Come join the fun!

The Circle 7, WSCS recently held its first meeting of the New Year in the home of Mrs. Marie Gartrell, 1815 Marinette. Chairman Viola Gorec presided over the meeting and plans were discussed for a possibility of having "secret pals." Also a "Traveling Gerie" (gift basket) is on the agenda. Young matrons in Kettler Knolls who would like to join this organization which is sponsored by the Methodist Church, may do so by contacting Mrs. Gorec at Lomita 2217-W for additional information. The meeting was brought to a close and refreshments served by Mrs. Gartrell.

THERE'S STILL the Red Cross! And a greater need now than ever to enroll in the Red Cross-sponsored First Aid class, Home Nursing class and, if enough are signed up, a Canteen class is being planned in the future. If you have taken any of these classes or even if you haven't and are interested in attending the meetings, you are cordially welcome. Phone Torrance 1524 for information or call at 1345 El Prado (Chamber of Commerce building). The Red Cross needs you! The next meeting is slated for Friday, January 19.
