William Dominguez Weds Miss Hansen

Of wide interest in this community is a wedding service read Sunday afternoon in First Methodist Church for Patricia Elaine Hansen and William Radford Dominguez. Rev. Clyde E. Miller, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of 100 relatives and intimate friends of the young couple.

The bride is the beautiful blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Hansen of 2325 Sonoma avenue and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Dominguez of 2015 Arlington avenue.

Given away by her father, Miss Hansen was radiant in a gown of white slipper satin made with a slight train, the marquisette yoke embroidered with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was draped from a coronet of pearls and she carried a white orchid surrounded by yellow tea roses.

Miss Yvonne Newgaard of Long Beach was maid of honor wearing ice blue lace and net over taffeta and carrying pink roses. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Allan Moore, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Joyce Thames, were gowns fashioned alike of yellow marquisette and salmon pink chiffon respectively. Their bouquets were of tea roses. Little Roberta Foley was flower girl.

Frank G. Dominguez Jr. was his brother's attendant and ushers were Dick Turner of Torrance and Robert Trujillo of Wilmington. Ronald, four-year-old brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Miss Elizabeth Ziemke Tells Vows With Bobbie G. Hunter

In an impressive ceremony performed Sunday morning in Nativity Catholic Church, Miss Elizabeth Ziemke became the bride of Bobbie G. Hunter, United States Army. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Emil F. Ziemke of 1627 Hickory avenue and her husband is a son of Mrs. Pearl Hunter of Los Angeles. Rev. P. J. McGuinness, pastor, officiated and music for the ceremony was played by Mrs. Neil J. McCongue, church organist.

The lovely, youthful bride, given in marriage by her father, was groomed in a princess model of white satin fashioned off train. and she wore a fingertip veil of bridal illusion. Her flowers were gardenias and bouvardia.

Miss Joan Ziemke attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing pink satin and carrying pink rosebuds. John W. Hunter was his brother's best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents and later Mr. and Mrs. Hunter left for a honeymoon trip to Northern California. Mrs. Hunter will continue her studies at Torrance High School, where she is in her senior year, and upon graduation hopes to join her husband, stationed now at Camp Roberts.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH NEWTON GEORGE

Miss Joan Mumford Now Mrs. Ralph N. George

All-white blossoms banded the chancel of The Little Church Around the Corner in Inglewood for the beautiful ceremony Sunday afternoon which united in marriage Miss Phyllis Joan Mumford and Ralph Newton George. Rev. Dr. M. Owen Kellison, chaplain of Chapman College, officiated at the rites witnessed by 150 wedding guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Mumford of 917 Anapola avenue and Mr. and Mrs. William C. George of 704 Madrid avenue are the bridegroom's parents.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was a lovely picture in a Dresden gown fashioned of ivory slipper satin, the tight-fitted bodice with nylon yoke trimmed with satin roses. Long fitted sleeves tapered to a point at the wrist, and the full skirt ended in a long train trimmed with nylon ruffling. Her fingertip veil of nylon net was held in place by a heart-shaped tiara of ivory satin and seed pearls. Her costume was complemented by a single strand of pearls and she carried white roses and matching hyacinths.

Mrs. William Parker (Barbara Coles) was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Beverly Hopkins and Patricia Mullin. The attendants' full-skirted identical gowns were floor-length models of white taffeta trimmed with pleated ruffling. Head bands of braided net completed their costumes and each wore a double strand of pearls, gifts of the bride. Heart-shaped bouquets of American Beauty roses effectively contrasted with their gowns. Little Marilyn DeVore was flower girl wearing a replica of the attendants' gowns and even her bouquet was a diminutive of theirs.

Miss Mari Jo Lee, of Las Vegas and formerly of Torrance, a junior at Chapman College, registered the many wedding and reception guests.

William C. George Jr. was his brother's attendant and ushering were William Parker, Jay R. Stroh and Ralph Prime.

Miss Patricia Clere played the accompaniment for Burdette L. Brimley, who sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Mumford attended El Camino and Chapman colleges, and her bridegroom was graduated from University of California at Santa Barbara, and is doing post-graduate work in economics at UCLA.

A reception at the church immediately followed the ceremony. Mrs. Mumford received in ankle-length grey satin with royal blue accessories and a corsage of cornflowers. Mrs. George attended her son's wedding in wine crepe with brown accessories, complemented by a corsage of talisman roses.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Roger Smith of New York City, Mr. Beldon Elliott of Buffalo, N. Y.; Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Webber, of Brawley, and John Pflugh of Bakersfield.

Valentine Tea Marks Second Anniversary

Valentine month was ushered in with one of the loveliest parties—a most attractively arranged tea given Friday afternoon to compliment Mrs. J. Parke Montague, wife of the newly installed president of Torrance Kiwanis Club.

Mrs. R. J. Deininger's charming El Prado home was the setting for this second annual affair, and assisting her as hostesses were the other wives of Kiwanian past presidents, Mrs. Bob L. Haggard, wife of the junior past president; and Mesdames Harriett Leech, Howard A. Wood, H. C. Barrington, R. F. Bishop, Edwin B. Brown, C. T. Rippey, J. R. Stroh, Dean L. Sears, C. C. Schultz, H. F. Ulbright, and Alden Smith.

Centerpiece for the lovely tea table was a heart shaped arrangement of American Beauty roses.

The valentine motif again was suggested by the heart valentine of paper lace and red ribbon bows placed on the buffet and flanked with tall red tapers.

Pouring were Mesdames Paul Loranger, C. H. Ragsdale, John Almond and George Miller.

Guests were approximately 50 wives of Torrance Kiwanis Club members.

Mrs. Vally Club Speaker Friday, 10th

Scheduled for 1 p.m. tomorrow in Woman's Clubhouse is the Lorita Baker Valley book review and lecture sponsored by the club. The second in a series, this program promises to be especially interesting, known among Mrs. Vally's admirers as "The Washington Review."

Just returned from her annual trip to Washington and New York, she has a wealth of factual information on national and international affairs. Much discussed New York plays will be included in her reviews of worth-while new publications.

Everyone is invited. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Mrs. Fred Cooper, hostess chairman, urges everyone who can, to remain for the tea hour at 2 o'clock.
