

ANDY ALEXANDER AND 'TONY'
... To Perform at Fun Festival

Youth Band 'Books' Added Festival Acts

"Tony," the trick horse, will be run through his paces by his owner, "Andy" Alexander, during a Friday evening performance to be held on the grounds of the Fun Festival at Cravens and Ingracia avenues at 8 p.m.

The appearance of the 'gay' midway is sponsored by the Torrance Area Youth Bands, Inc. to raise funds to support the Fifth Annual Youth Band Parade on May-19.

Other added attractions to appear on the carnival grounds include a performance tonight at 9 o'clock by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America Chorus. Bub Bartholomew will direct.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock the Torrance Area Youth Band will play a concert under the direction of James Van Dyke.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Betty Thomas and her Accordionettes will give a concert from the carnival stage.

The show, which opened last night, will run until Sunday. The midway will open tonight and tomorrow night at 6 o'clock. Festivities will start at 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Midway attractions consist of a Ferris Wheel, Merry-Go-Round, Fly-a-Plane, Tilt-a-Whirl, Roller Coaster and other thrill provoking rides for kids of all ages.
