Service will be continuous until 11 o'clock, and fruit juice, pancakes, eggs and coffee will be served for the nominal fee of fifty cents. Wray Nansel will be general chairman.

Funds from this benefit will be used for welfare.

Guest Night

national affairs with an outstanding style of presentation won for him the admiration and attention of his audience. His brilliance as a speaker and his outstanding background of experience, as usual, brought enthusiastic applause.

Immediately following the informal luncheon meeting at the clubhouse next Wednesday, the president and other delegates including Mrs. B. W. Roberts, A. F. Ewalt, E. L. Snodgrass, will leave for Hilton Hotel, Long Beach to attend the annual District Convention. They will be joined later by Mrs. E. A. Miles, Raymond Rogers and Hal Jones, all of whom have made reservations for a smorgasbord dinner to precede the evening session.

The president represented the club at a reciprocity luncheon and federation meeting Wednesday at Lomox Woman's Club.

Mrs. Whitney also attended the final presidents' council for the year, held Thursday of last week at Los Angeles headquarters.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Whitney will be guests of the Woman's Club of Playa del Rey at a dinner party in Westport Beach Club.

Housewarming Party Given For Fedors

Mr. and Mrs. John Fedor, and their daughters Margie and Barbara of 1522 Annapolis avenue were pleasantly surprised recently when a group of neighbors and friends gave a housewarming party in their honor.

A large pink camellia plant was a group gift for their newly purchased home and at the conclusion of an informal evening devoted to visiting and viewing television, refreshments of assorted cakes, ice cream and beverages were served.

BREAKFAST SPONSORED BY BETHEL

The 220th street home of Miss Mary Ann Lenton was the setting for a Job's Daughters-sponsored kidnap breakfast recently.

Hostesses for the enjoyable affair were hotel officers Donna Pat Wolf, Marian McDonald, Dora Ritko, Mary Ann Lenton. They were assisted by Mrs. Don Wolf, Howard McDonald, and William Bremner, Guardian Council members attending in addition to those mentioned above were:

Mrs. Mildred Edwards, deputy grand guardian; Mrs. Katharine Lane, and Mrs. Charlotte Robinson.

Coffee was once sold as a medicine, supposedly a cure for many ailments.
