Tartars Enter Bay League Track Meet

The Tartar track squad, half a hundred eager runners and jumpers, will take on the Bay League beginning at 1:30 this afternoon on the El Camino cinder paths in the league semi-finals.

Seeking medals and ribbons today and next Thursday will be about 15 varsity athletes and 15 Bees. The 20-man Cee squad—Coach Rex Welch's strongest contenders—will complete their meet this afternoon, while the varsity and Bees qualify for the finals to be held next week.

Santa Monica and Inglewood will probably be established as favorites for the league honors on the basis of their showing in the Inglewood relays last week. The Redondo Seahawks, who always field a strong track squad, will be giving the two big schools a run for it all the way. Torrance should figure next with Beverly Hills.

CEES STRONG
The Tartar Cees have a good chance to cop the featherweight division of the league. Freshman Bob Brown should threaten the Bay League mark of 18.8s for the 140-yard dash. The El Camino track should be just the place to get some good times down in the dashes. Brown ran the distance in 19.2s recently at Norwalk on a fair track, against the wind, and on a very chilly afternoon.

Although Burt Smith will have to hustle to beat the Cee pole vault record of 11 ft. 2 3/4 in., he should go high enough to win the league title for the year.

Making the trip to the Warriors' stadium this afternoon will be the following men, listed with the events they will enter. No relay teams had been selected in time for publication in this issue, but team will be entered in each classification, according to Welch.

FUTURE NET STAR . . . Freshman Jerry Farrar, who played the third singles spot in a match with Narbonne last week, has shown the form it takes to become a great tennis player in the future, according to Jerry Davidson, who is coaching the tennis teams.—Herald photo.

Netmen Face El Segundo Today After Dropping Match to Gauchos

Hampered by the absence of Gary Groves, the Tartars first singles netman who was performing in the Inglewood Relays at the time, the Torrance High tennis team lost a 6-3 match to the Narbonne Gauchos played here last Thursday.

Tom Pryor was moved up to first singles and lost his match to Suzuki 9-7, 4-6, 2-6. Bill Baron, playing second singles, won the only individual match for the Tartars. He downed Kline 4-6, 6-1, 7-5.

Jerry Farrar, a freshman who is playing his first season of tennis, pushed Narbonne's Irvin to three sets before losing a fine match 3-6, 6-3, 3-6. He was playing the third singles spot.

Gene Davis dropped two straight sets to Watkins 3-6, 3-6 in the fourth singles matches. Dave Scholl lost two sets to Barrett in the fifth singles match 1-6, 3-6. It was Scholl's first varsity match.

The first doubles team of Bill Bourne and Vern Lewis offered only slight competition to the Gaucho team of Mehler and Reid who took a two-set 4-6, 3-6 win for Narbonne.

Dick Uglund and Don Rohrdanz, playing second doubles for the Tartars, took the Elston-Harrington team 6-1, 6-3 for the Tartars' only doubles win.

The team will play El Segundo on the El Camino courts this afternoon beginning at 2:30. Three singles matches and two mixed doubles have been scheduled.

Coach Jerry Davidson was full of praise for the team as most of the members were playing up at least one class last week. He was especially happy with the showing made by Farrar who has been playing tennis only a short while. Farrar shows fine form, and is developing a continues, he will be a Dudley Cup contender before he's out of school, Davidson said after the matches.

Tribe Racketmen Seeking Victory

The El Camino College tennis Warriors will travel to East Los Angeles JC to see if they can beat the Huskies by force and not by forfeit tomorrow. Five months ago the Elans walloped the Warriors 9 to 0, but their sixth singles man was ineligible, forcing them to forfeit the match.

Long Beach CC and Santa Monica CC handed the blue and grey ball and string brigade their sixth and seventh losses, last Friday and Saturday by identical scores of 9 to 0.

The netters managed to get only one set in each encounter. Friday, Jay Sandberg of Inglewood took his third singles man to three sets before losing, and Saturday Ed Miller of Torrance managed to garner the second set of his sixth singles match.

Blue-Gray Track Team Hosts Pair

Coach Amby Schindler's El Camino cindermen will act as hosts for their second consecutive Metropolitan Conference meet when the Bakersfield Renegades and the Harbor Seahawks invade the Warrior cinderpaths tomorrow. The first event is scheduled for 3 p.m.

The Blue-Gray thinclads will be out to upset their two visitors, with sprinters Don Milner and Bob Raynor, quartermiler Don Adolph, hurdlers George Mayol and Joe Bena, high jumper Lynne Frantz, broad jumper Hank Compagnon, pole vaulter Boyd Crawford, and the Warrior four man mile relay squad expected to lead the way.

Bakersfield is spearheaded by the league dash king, Ron Packard. This small but lightning-fast Renegade captured both the 100 and 220-yard dashes in the Metro finals last year with times of 9.8 and 22.0 respectively.

Jayvees Nipped In 2-1 Contest

The Tartar Junior Varsity still had a clean record after last Thursday's encounter here with the Leuzinger Jayvees. They haven't won a game.

Playing heads-up ball, the two teams clashed in a close, well-played game which wound up after seven innings with Leuzinger leading 2-1. Jack Fees, Jayvee first baseman, scored the Tartar Midgets' only run in the third inning when he walked, stole second, and crossed the plate on Joe White's sharp single through the infield.

Duane Mittan pitched six innings of the game, and Robert Bowen finished with the seventh.
